LEGION NOTES

To all those bereaved in the Legion and Legion W.A., we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their respective losses. The Branch has seen quite a number of these sad events recently.

We trust that by now every one has heard about the Rogers Fire Fund, and has seen fit to contribute in some measure to it. Fire, to us, is always one of the most horrible tragedies that can befall a family. In this case, where there is no insurance, it makes it infinitely more horrible. Surely, each and every comrade will want to help as their means allow them to. And try not to put it off, but do it before Saturday. In connection with this, we can all remember that old adage, "There but for the grace of God go I."

The Branch is this year sponsoring instead of the usual essay contest, a public speaking contest. Arrangements are now progressing with the principals and further announcement of this event will be made later. Our personal opinion is that this type of contest should be not only more interesting but of more value to the competitors.

Paging Mr. Sykes! What about the oyster "do"? At the last regular meeting it was decided that an oyster supper would be held in the near future and Alf was made chairman. There seems to be some little difficulty in locating the "esters," however, Alf has promised them, even if he and his two l.c. have to go down to Halifax after them. (At their own expense, of course.)

Entertainment chairman Herb Arnold has arranged for a film next meeting night, April 25th and he and Alf are hoping to combine their two projects for a real bang-up evening.

The Little NHL day was a really successful affair last Saturday with a large number of teams in attendance. A full report is elsewhere in the paper.

Our cribbage teams went to Port Credit Saturday afternoon and arrived home the champs. More power to them and let's hope they do as well in the district playoffs.

JUNIOR FARM CHOIR FESTIVAL COMPETITOR

Halton Junior Farmer choir, 35-strong journeyed to London on Thursday where they participated in the annual Junior Farmer Choir Festival. Trained by Thomas Allen of Waterdown, they received words of commendation from the Festival critic, Dr. G. Roy Fenwick, of Toronto. In their first number, "Dry Bones," Dr. Fenwick commended the boys for their good rhythm, and the choir as a whole for the "good shading" and the excellence of their words. Other selections by the Halton choir were "Oklahoma," and "Kentucky Babe."

Other choirs participating were from the counties of Perth, Oxford, Elgin and Middlesex. The massed choirs conducted by Dr. Fenwick sang "With Jockey to the Fair." The choir members, together with their director Thomas Allen, and their accompanist, Mrs. George Newell, are to be congratulated on their very excellent effort.

The collapse of the bleachers, when the five choirs were getting ready for their one and only practice under Dr. Fenwick, fortunately resulted in no serious injuries.

A VISIT TO THE HALTON FOLK SCHOOL

J. E. W.

For four years we have been wanting to pay a visit to a Folk School. Last Friday night we had the privilege of spending a very pleasant hour at Mr. and Mrs. Mac Alexander's on the tenth session of Equus. Certainly the Alexander home is an ideal spot for a Folk School or as a matter of fact, for any event. The Alexander home built 150 years ago from bricks made on the farm, lies in with the theme of the folk school, "Know Halton County." The Alexander home is always a hospitable spot to visit and certainly Friday evening was no exception. Mrs. A. R. Coulter and Mrs. Roy Ellenton were there to extend a welcome to the school. We all had the privilege of once again meeting Miss Eleanor Saracuse, of Norfolk County, a past president of the Junior Farmers of Ontario, who is leader of the school. When we arrived they were in the midst of a discussion on the "Industrial Development in Halton." Reeve Wilfrid Bird, of Equus, was the leader of the informative discussion. Then followed an impromptu panel discussion on some of the rural organizations in Halton. Here Miss Jean Alexander represented the 411 Club members, Miss Barbara Tasker the Junior Farmers, Mrs. M. J. Brown the Women's Institutes, and Spencer Wilson the Federation of Agriculture, with J. E. Whitlock as chairman.

The panel presented some worthwhile information. Unfortunately we had to leave for another meeting, and therefore missed the remainder of the evening's program. However, we saw sufficient to tell us on Folk Schools. Certainly those responsible are to be congratulated on their initiative and energy which they put into the planning and organization of this annual event.

Apprentice Training for a Bright Future

THE MOST ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORTERS of the Canadian Army's Apprentice Plan are those young men now enrolled, and their parents. A happy, clean-cut group, the Soldier Apprentices receive a combination of school study, discipline and trades training, as well as sports and other recreation.

The carefully balanced programme of Soldier Apprentice Training helps to develop and mature judgment and self-discipline. There is plenty to study and learn, but the happy environment of Soldier Apprentice Training seems to make this whole process so much easier and more pleasant.

Out of his training, the Soldier Apprentice emerges as a qualified tradesman with the opportunity of building a fine career for himself in the Army.

The young man of 16 who enrolls receives:

- thorough trades training in one of 16 trades.
- academic training—in such subjects as physics, chemistry, algebra, English.
- the general military training of the Canadian soldier.

Learning and living with other young Canadians of their own age stimulates healthy and happy comradeship as well as intense pride in their squadrons and units.

Soldier Apprentices are eligible for all Army benefits, including 30 days annual leave. They receive half pay when 16 and on their 17th birthday they receive full pay.

The young man, with a minimum of grade 8 education, who is interested in the happy, healthy and purposeful life of the Soldier Apprentice should investigate immediately.

For an interesting booklet and full information on Soldier Apprentices—training, write, phone or visit the Army Information Recruiting Centre nearest your home.
