W.I. SOCIAL EVENING AT MRS. REID'S HOME

Mrs. Reid invited the W.I. to a social evening at her home last week. After the business was finished everyone enjoyed refreshments and visiting. There was a good attendance.

Happy birthday to Donald Hodge who will be fourteen years of age Wednesday of next week.

The W.A. meeting will be held on Thursday of this week, April 1st at Mrs. Cecil Smith's home.

The Junior W.A. met at Mrs. Italy's home, Jackie Lince had charge of the devotional period. She chose "Onward Christian Soldiers" for the hymn and conducted the worship service. Thelma Ewins read minutes of the previous meeting. The story was about sugar and the West Indies. The busy period was fancy work on the baby outfit.

Mackenzie News

The hockey, curling and winter sports are closing up but not old man winter who is having one last fling.

After taking a measurement the next thing the home mechanic needs is a hammer and saw. There are various types available according to the job you need. Hammers are from $1.75 to a very special looking one at $4.35. Saws run from $1.00 for a coping saw to $11.85 for a super one, and various prices in between.

If you need anything in the way of paint, floor tile, wallboard or tile, or cementa for same, come and see what we have in our new showrooms.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Tom Forgrave

Scouts Sean Wareing, Bill Farmer and Paul Marshall attended a bronze arrowhead course at Burlington over the week-end.

Scouts and cubs would like to thank the people of Georgetown and district for helping to make the paper drive Saturday a great success.

There will be a meeting of rover scouts at "Tim" Stacey's on Saturday at 2:00 p.m.

DAMAGE SLIGHT WHEN WIRING CAUSES FIRE

A short circuit in heavy duty wiring, believed caused by dampness, resulted in a fire call Thursday night when firemen were summoned to the home of Ern Thompson adjoining the fire hall.

No damage resulted, other than destruction of a few feet of wiring, although the fire was hot enough to scorch paint on the outside of the house.
