Mackenzie News

Spring hasn't sprung as yet, but we're hoping for a grand opening soon.

To renew a cracked ceiling we have the new Donnacoona Kilor-Koted ceiling tile with the ship-lapped edges at 11c per square ft. No further painting or finishing is necessary. Sufficient tile for a ceiling 12x15 would cost $20.00 and the material necessary to strap the ceiling one way would be $8.75. This would make a cost of $29.65 for a complete job. See you on your way to church on Sunday.
