Norval Bridal Couple Will Live in Germany

A couple who were married in Norval on Saturday wiff be living in Germany later this year, where the groom, William Melville Staines, will be working for the A. V. Ros

Rev. Frank Dunlop of Toronto was the officiating clergyman at the wedding ceremony which took place in the United Church, decorated with standards of gladioli and chrymanthemums. Rev. C. D. Lemke assisted, Miss Elaine Laird played the organ and Mrs. Clark Lyons sang "I'll walk. Beside You" and

"O Perfect Love" during the service. Principals in the wedding were Mary Issbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Carney, Norval, and William Melville Staines, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Staines, Agincourt. The bride was also an Avro employee before her marriage.

The bridal gown was of ivory satin and Swiss chantilly lace, the skirt ending a train. She wore a floor length veil, coronet headdress of pearls and the groom's gift, a string of pearls, and carried Sweetheart roses and orchids.

Four bridal attendants were Mrs. Noel Butterworth, matron of honor, champagne iridescent taffeta and matching headdress, the bride's sisters Pat and Shella Carney and the groom's cousin, Mardi Staines, Fenwick, Their gowns, similarly styled to that of Mrs. Butterworth, were sage green and they carried bouquets of spring flowers and wore pearls, gifts of the bride.

Maurice Patterson, Agincourt, was groomsman, and ushers were George Woolhead, Agincourt, Noel Butterworth and Donaid Carney, the bride's cousin. Mr. Carney gave his daughter in marriage.

Receiving afterwards in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Mrs. Carney wore a princess style gown of old rose lace over taffeta, navy accessories and corrage of pink roses and carnations, Mrs. Staines, the groom's mother, assisted in receiving a hundred guests, wearing blue Italian taffeta with beaded yoke, matching picture hat and a corrage of carnations and roses. Out of town guests were from Wasaga Leach, Fenwick, Toronto and Agincourt. Leaving on a honeymoon trin to the Laurentians, the bride wore a navy and white suit, white and navy accessories and red rose corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Staines will be living in Montreal until they leave for Germany.

BALLINAFAD

TEMPERANCE SPEAKER AT SUNDAY SERVICE

Mr. C. Britton representing the Ontario Temperance Federation was guest speaker Sunday morning. A series of district Temperance Rallies reaching many thousands of people are being held throughout Canada and are stimulating new temperance sentiment. The attendance and interest of young people has been most encouraging. "Of such dread diseases as cancer, tuberculosis, polio, eto, none is so deadly or incurable as Alcoholism." stated Mr. Britton. In closing he mid "We have put on the whole armour of God and are going on to victory." We ask the prayers and financial support of all people to defeat this Public Enemy No. 1.

A pleasant social get together was enjoyed at the Pot Luck Supper on Thursday night in the hall under the puspices of the W.A. The tables were nicely decorated and laden with good things to eat - young and old alike doing full justice to the bountiful supper. A fish pond for children and parcel post table were well patronized.

Marjorie Gibson is recovering from a tonsilectomy which she underwent in Brampton hospital Saturday morning. We hope she will soon be able to be around again.

Sunday visitors at the manse were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russ of Hespeler and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton

Britten of Toronto. -Institute Girls Club membus enjoyed to the OAC at Guelph on Friday. They were guests at MacDonald Hall for luncheon and inspection tours. The girls were then taken on a tour through the Guelph Mercury building which proved to be quite educa-

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill Jr. visited Sunday with Mrs. Shortill's sister, Mrs. L. McArthur in Kitchener hospital where she has been a pollo patient for almost a year.

SIX LORNE SCOTS AT MEAFORD RANGES

end at the Meaford ranges.

Teeter, Officer Cadet Seymour En- is seldom that Halton County is BID Locks Bridge and Plat sufficiently close to the die of the Saw will also the from the same and the first strength and the same and

Thomas Elson, 72 Former Mill Employee

A machine tender at the Provinctal "lower milf" until he retired in 1945, Thomas W. Elson, 72, died in Guelph General Hospital on Sat-

Seriously ill since last fall, Mr. Elson had theen only turiefly out of hospital in January when his health became worse and he again became a patient. .

1924, he worked before that at the Howard Smith mill in Cornwall, the city where he had lived since childhood. Born in Gloucester, England, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elson came to that city from England when he was two years old.

Following the death of his wife, Emily Ridyard in 1946, Mr. Elson took the position of caretaker at the Berwick Hall Apartments and made his home there until his illness. A member of Halton Chapter, R.A.M., he was an agrive curler in his younger days and until a few years ago was one of the stalwart members of the Lions Club. The past few years his main interest was in fishing and hunting trips which he enjoyed with a group of local sportsmen. He was a member and daithful attendant at St. George T Anglican Church. Archdencon W. G. O. Thompson conducted the funeral service on Monday at the McClure Funeral Home which was followed with interment in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were George Muckart, Richard Prust, Alex Kean, William Cromar, Campbell Sinclair and Albert lfunter.

Georgetown Competitors At Davenport Festival

Georgetown and district singers were prominent in the Davenport Festival of Sacred Praise last week in Toronto when several pupils of Kenneth R. Harrison, ARCT, were competitors as well as the Junior choirs from St. John's United Pupils of Mr. Harrison who entered the festival included Donna McMillan who won a silver medal in her solo class and ... Eleanor Schenk a bronze medal, this is a Blind Fund Campaign class in which Margaret Barrager, Aurora, niece of Don Barrager of town, placed first. Four boys entered the class for unchanged volces, Alan Emerson, Barry Burne, Raymond Fletcher and Douglas Dredge, with Douglas getting the silver medal.

The St. John junior choir placed second in two classes, Pat Willson was third in her contralto solo entry and with Sandra Scott took third place in duct.

Orange Euchre Draws Big Stewarttown Cowd

One of the season's best crowds attended a euchre and dance in Stewarttown Hall Friday which was sponsored by the building committee of Loyal Orange Lodge 68.

Almost 150 people played cards in the early part of the evening, and later Wes Louth was floor manager and Doris Hulls' Orchestra played dor dancing. Lunch was served at Harvey Lusty, master of the lodge, was chairman for the evening. A special $25 prize was won by Mr. A. Kelly, Palermo, who had ticket 212, and Miss Jackie Murray. Stewarttown, won the door prize. Prizowinners at euchre included Elizabeth Leslie and Mr. Wilson, Jr., Victoria, who won first prizes, Mrs. H. Ridler, Brampton, and Jack Cain, seconds, and Mrs. Mamie Thomson and Clarence Varey, thirds. A spot dance was won by Margaret Cain and Bileen Varey.

FARM NEWS

HALTON PLOWMEN ARE

INVITED TO BRESLAU The 1954 International Plowing Match is to be held in Waterloo County, near Breslau. The local match open to the plowmen of the host county and immediate district, is always held the day preceding the opening of the International. Halton County has received an invitation to participate in this outstanding event end at a meeting of the local Plowmen's Association held on Friday evening, those present were unanimously in favour of Hal-Six members of the local C Coy ton County participating, President were numbered with a group of 40. Spencer Wilson-and vice president Lorne Scots who spent the week- George Readhead were appointed as : delegates to ettend a meeting in In the party were IndiLt. Allan Galt, during the current week. It.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eyres, Buffalo, were week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. 'Irwin Noble.

Misses Anne Hyde and Jean Muckart spent the Easter holidays in London with Joyor Denham. Mr. John Hambleton, Orangeville is visiting at present with his daughter Mrs. A. Puttenden. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ferry were in Washago on Sunday visiting with their son George and his wife and two children. Joe Hall, Sr. is off for a week-A Georgetown resident since end bus trip to Louisville, Kentucky, where he will witness the Kentucky > spent the Easter holidays in town at the home of her grandfather, T. W. Treamor. Lyna Elthrington of Preston was a guest with Mr. and Mrs. William Kinrade and Barbara during the Easter holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie lies of Toronto and Mrs Margaret Earls of Midland visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Martin on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hillock, Dianne, Glennwright, Blayne and

> High school students Don Souther and Paul Prust spent part of their Easter vacation on a motor trip to Ottawa.

Miss Ann Atwood of Peterborough

Grady-Morrell spent the Easter holidays in Atlantic City. Robert McDonald, Triple Hill Farm, Inglewood, spent a few days last week with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shields and their son

Two local ladies who have been patients in Guelph General Hospital are home again. They are Mrs. Sam Tennant and Mrs. George Alcott Bryden, Maple Avenue.

the local drive.

Visitors during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Lyons were Mr. and Mrs. Colin McIntosh of Welland and Ross, Billy, and Jane McKinney of Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Humberstone, Anne and Tommy of Brantford, Mr. John Finlay, Toronto, and Mrs. T. H. Humberstone, Toronto, were Sunday visitors with Mr., and Mrs. Stan Finlay.

Dick Licata is organizer, Fred

Chapman, secretary and Bob Darou

treasurer with Mayor Jack Arm-

Last night details of a Blitz Campaign next week were arranged when captains and canvassers met at the McGibbon House. Final instructions will be given at a further meeting next week by county chairman L. D. Maxwell and a man from treat. They have purchased a home on the highway where Mr. and Mrs.

latter having moved into a new position as supervisor of rules for Canadian Pacific Railways, a job which has taken him to all parts of Canada on speaking engagements.

They chose Georgetown as their home to be near their daughter,

KINDERGARTEN CLASS

Mrs. Leslie Young, who lives on a Something new when school opened after Easter was the addition of a kindengarten class which Mrs.

Woods will teach along with her other duties. The six members of the class are Lynda Walker, Lois and Beth Murray, Gary Briggs, Billy Ewins and Mervyn Densmore.

Michael Huffman has returned to his home in Toronto after spending

Easter holidays with his grandpar-

Miss Joan Patterson and a friend

The WA. had a quilting meeting last week at Mrs. Blizard's home, ... wer visitors for the week-end with her cousin, Mrs. C. A. Grant and ents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith.

Mr. Raines has retired from his

Ken Meers formerly lived, house they built nearby.

farm near Terra Cotta.

SOMETHING NEW

STEWARTTOWN

gate them there.

Mr. Grent.

Retires from CP Railway

Moves to Georgetown strong honorary chairman.

CNIB headquarters.

Mrs. Armand Swackhamer and son Jimmy have moved to Ottawa from Essex, joining Mr. Swackhamer who was transferred recently from the Windsor office of the Food and Drug Division, Department of Health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGowan spent a few days last week in Windsor. On Suhday they had as their guests their piece, Mrs. Harold Ballard and Mr. Hallard, whose home is in Grenfell, Saskatchewan.

Among those from out-of-town attending the funeral of Thomas Eison on Monday were his sister, Miss Elizabeth Elson, brother Albert and niece Barbara of Cornwall, and his nephew, Merritt and Mrs. Reay and their son Robert of Detroit.

Mr. Milton Hollingshead and his mother, Mrs. M. Hollingshead and Mrs. Charles Pyfer of Collingwood spent Friday with Mrs. P. L. Mc-Gilvray and Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McGilvray. Mrs. W. J. Brown, Miss Islay Brown and Mr. Earl Stubbs of Caledon were Baster

Mrs. B. F. Redston has returned to her home in Montreal after spending a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Leslie, R. R. 4, Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs, Leslie flew to Miami for a week while she was here, making brief stops at New York and Washington.

The latest newcomers to Sunbeam Heights, Georgetown, are Mr. and Mrs. James S. Hyatt who moved in to their new home last week. The Hyatts, formerly lived at Oshawa but have been residing at Alderahot pending the completion of their new Sunbeam Home. Mr. Hyatt is associated with Smith & Stone Ltd in their new plastics plant.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr and Mrs. William Poynter Thompson announce the engagement of their daughter Donna Marie to Howard Alexander Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Graham of Hillsburgh. The marriage will take place on Saturday, May the twenty-second at three o'clock in Georgetown Baptist Church.

McClure, Licata Head Stan Finlay Speaker At Church Service

Organization_for a fund cam-Using his business experience as paign for the new building for the a papermill engineer, Stan Finlay Institute for the Blind was comspoke Sunday morning when men of pleted at a meeting last week when the church took part in the service Harold McClure was chosen to head at St. George's Anglican Church.

Mr. Finlay explained how paper is so important an element of the business world and in church life where religious education could not be disseminated so effectively without it, and likened the different grades of paper to people themselves, each with its own value and each subject to imperfectations and te improvement,

A number of other members of the Men's Club assisted with parts of the service, including Fred Chapman, Thomas Warnes, William McNally, Goril Davidson and Charles Harris.

New residents of town who mo-UNKNOWN FRIEND ved here last week are Mr. and Mrs. REBEKAH BANQUET P. W. Raines, who come from Mon-

Members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge found out who had been their Unknown Friend during the year when the four group leaders arrunged a salad supper last Tuesday preceding the regular lodge.

Each year, members draw names secretly and during the year provide gifts and thoughtful services for their chosen name. After dinner, names were drawn for the coming year.

Mrs. Dick Riddall, who is noble grand, was chairman at the dinner. The toast list included one to the lodge, proposed by Mrs. Bob Jepson with Mrs. Gordon Spence replying: and a toast to the unknown friend by Mrs. Bert Tuck, with response by Mrs. Jack Watson.

Lions, Ladies Attend Toronto Supper Dance

Members of the Lions Club ententained their wives Thursday, when they attended the supper dance in the Oak Room of the King Edward Hotel.

Members of the party, who made the trip to Toronto by but were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gunning. Mr. and Mrs. Clerence Kennedy, Mr. and Licate, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrager, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Riddall. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marchall, Mr. and enth birthday on April 18 when he with Miss Ivens and Mr. J. Newton-

Scobie Transport Buys Snyder Business Here One of Georgetown's oldest busi-

THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor:

The start of daylight saving time will at least remind us of summer and warm weather, even if the cool air of the last few days has an ad-

ACLE	CHICKY.
		*		-Ern	Batkin.
Date.			Max.	Min.	Rain
April	19		59	40	.28
April	20	10	55	40	08
April	21		85	42	100
April	22		73	41	Trace .
April	23		59	34	Trace
April	24	23 (34)	55	81	Trace
April	25		67	41	Trace
			-
Average		62	38	.36

HOLY CROSS MASS IN UKRAINIAN

An unique event took place in Holy Cross Church Sunday morning when a Ukrainian Mass was cciobrated here for the first time, by a pricet from Guelph.

The Mass, said in the Ukranian tongue, brought back many memories to those who have been in Canada for a number of years and was a rare treat for New Canadians recently arrived from the Ukraine,

THREE FROM DISTRICT IN DIPLOMA COURSE

Eight students from outside Canada were among the sixty-one graduates of the two year Diploma course who received diplomas at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, on April 15th.

The out of Canada graduates included four students from Jamaica BWI, and one each from England, Holland, Costa Rica, and Southern Rhodesia. Twenty five counties of the province of Ontario were represented. One out of Ontario student was from New Brunswick.

Students from Halton and Peel completing the course included Donald Johnson, Milton, David Tuck, Burlington and William Fraser, R R 2, Brampton.

Fun Night Proceeds For Improvement Fund

Euchre vied with cribbage and crokinole for popularity at the Fun Night monsored by the Stone School Association at the school on Satur-

First prizes for euchre were won by Mrs. Earl Mackay and Charles Greig, with consolation prizes going to Mrs. K. C. Lindsay and Ern Batkin. The cribbage prize was won by Sandy McKay and the crokinole prize by W. O. Brownridge, Procceds will go toward the schoolyard improvement fund.

McMillan Again on Executive of O.H.A

Ken McMillan was elected to fourth term on the Ontario Hockey Association executive at the annual meeting in Toronto Saturday.

President for a second year Tory Gregg, Wingham, who has been master of ceremonies at the fall fair here for a number of years. He is serving his second term.

FIREMEN CALLED TWICE GRASS, DUMP FIRES

The fire brigade was called Thursday morning to a grass fire at the Lloyd Davison farm on the 8th Line, Saturday morning, a fire at the Smith & Stone dump caused heavy smoke and needed the the attention of the firemen.

LIMEHOUSE

SCHOOL ASSOCIATION HAS EUCHRE PARTY

Winners at the Gibraltar School Association euchre on Tuesday evening were Mrs. S. Lawr and Ron Latimer and seconds went to Mrs. John Foster and A. C. Patterson. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and family of Toronto were with the Fred Briggs on Sunday.

Lieut, and Mrs. R. P. Bourne of London were with parents, Lt. Col. and Mrs. K. M. Bourne for the week

Jimmie Robert of Guelph and Mr. Mrs. Art Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Dick. Arthur Finkhelmer of Brantford were visitors with the Scholz's this WANK

the Young Street warehouse in Georgetown. MRS. THOMAS GOODLET. DIES IN CALGARY

nesses changed hands this wask when Norman Snyder sold his transport business to Scoble Trans-

Although Mr. Snyder will relinquish ownership of his 23 year old business on May 1st, he will be associated with Mr. Scoble in operating the Georgetown business. The Scoble firm, with head office in Toronto, operates a fleet of over 30 trucks. Mr. Snyder's staff of three drivers will be employed by Scobles.

and the business will operate from port, Ltd.

James Goodlet flew to Calgary, Alta., last week to attend the funeral of his stepmother, Martha Elizabeth Goodlet, 72, who had been III for several months. Mrs. Goodlet had lived in Huxley, Alberta before moving to Calgary in 1946. She was a native of Boliver, Missouri. Surviving are her husband, Thomas, three sons, Leslie and Francis Dunham, Carrot River, Sask., and Perry Dunham, Lashburn, Sask., a sister, Mrs. Minerva Stone, Hawthorne, Wash., and two brothers, Voley Pitts, Euphrates, Wash., and Carl Pitts, Coulse City, Wash.

Mr. Thomas Goodlet returned to Georgetown with his son and will be spending some time in town.

Horace Barnes Opens New Ashgrove Business"

An Ashgrove district farmer has completed sale of his farm to a Dixie man and has opened a welding shop and Otaco dealership at Ashgrove.

Horace Barnes is the new busincamnan. He has erected a steel building on the sideroad just off the 7th Line at Ashgrove and is also building a new house where he will live with his wife and family of four. The Barnes farm where his father, the late James Barnes, also farmed is now owned by James McCarthy, Dixle fruit farmer. Mr. McCarthy does not plan at present to live on the property, but will farm the land.

FIREMEN'S AUXILIARY HAS EUCHRE PARTY

Prizewinners at a cuchre party in the Fire Hall clubrooms last week included Mrs. Jack Tost. 92. Floria Alcott, 89, Mrs. K. Graham. 85 and William Hyde, 85. Ladies of the auxiliary were hosts at the party. Mrs. Norman Snyder won a prize for most-lone hands and Mrs. Allen the consolation prize.

FAIR BOARD HOLDS FINAL EUCHRE, DANCE

Winding up a successful season of outbres and dances, the Esque ing Agricultural Society held a similar affair last Wednesday night at which twenty eight tables were in play. Winners included Mrs. Frank Peacock, Milton; Mrs. W. Stark; Moldrum Stark, Milton and-Mrs. Chester Deforest. Doris Hulls orchestra played for the dancing, and Jim Brooks was floor manager Lunch was served by the ladies of the Society.

KID HOCKEYISTS TO HEAR N.H.L. STAR

The lads in town and surrounding communities who played hockey this winter on Saturday are being given a banquet next Monday night and are fortunate in that the guest of honour will be the Detroit Red Wing's Bob Goldham, who starred during the past Stanley Cup playoffs. It is also hoped that the oldtime great all round athlete Lionel Conacher, president of the Little NHL will be present. All lads who played hockey this winter, as well as coaches, managers and referees are asked to be present. There will be a good dinner, as well as the guest speaker, anda sports film will be shown after-The evening is free to all those who played or helped during the season and is being arranged by the local Canadian Legion Branch, sponsors Mrs. Wm. Jones of Toronto has of the kid hockey in town and disspent the past week with the C. A. trict. Dinner will be at 7 p.m. on May 3rd.

onto ... visited the W. T. Mills on Saturday. Jack Scholz-celebrated his elev- Mr. W. I. Newton of Harrie Was