BALLINAFAD

PRESENTATION FOR BRIDE AND GROOM

A presentation of many lovely and useful gifts were made to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hitchcock, a recent bride and groom, in the hall Friday night. Progressive euchre was played, with Mrs. Jesse McEnery and Norman Sinclair being the prize winners.

Rev. E. Cursey of Acton had charge of the service Sunday morning, it being Communion Sunday. Six infants were presented for baptism. Pamela Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snow, Calvin Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Sanderson, Sheila Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson, Merle Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allan, Kathy Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reg French, Denzil Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Height.

The Young People met Friday night at Janice Baker's home. The opening worship period was in charge of Evelyn Saunders assisted by Shirley Kirkwood. Programs for the rest of the year were given to the members. The topic was on Faith and Evangelism and a short skit on the same theme was given by Evelyn Saunders, Janice Baker, and Maryann Maxwell.

Mrs. Cam McEnery is at present in Guelph General Hospital where she is receiving treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Williams of Hornby were callers at the manse Sunday evening.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swindlehurst on the birth of their baby girl, born Thursday April 29th in Guelph Hospital.

Ferguson, Massey-Harris Films Viewed by Club

Movies of Ferguson and Massey-Harris tractors and equipment were shown Monday by Georgetown dealer Murt Allison when members of Terra Cotta Farmers Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie.

The group were shown how the company's equipment is tested on the Massey Harris farm at Milliken, and invited to visit it in a group at any time. They were also told that group visits to the production plant in Toronto are available for farm organizations. A Laurel & Hardy movie provided a lighter side to the evening's program.

Diane and Marie McKane and Keith Leslie, who will be soloists at Peel Music Festival rehearsed their festival selections, with Mrs. George Fraser playing piano accompaniment. Mrs. Fraser McDonald gave a humorous reading which she called "Throw It Away."

Mrs. Jack McDonald expressed thanks to those taking part in the program.

The ladies enjoyed the meeting especially, as the men volunteered to serve lunch and do the dishes afterwards. Earlier at the ladies meeting, Mrs. Howard Dolsen told of the Royal Tour in Australia and New Zealand, and members answered roll call with an item of interest about the tour.
