Rayner-Hicks Wedding at Brampton Army Citadel

A Georgetown man and Brampton girl were married on April 24th in the Salvation Army Citadel, Brampton.

Snadragons and carnations decorated the Citadel when Capt. Kerr officiated at the marriage of Mrs. Margaret Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hicks and Lawrence Reginald Rayner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Rayner, Georgetown.

The bride wore white satin with nylon net, the bodice patterned with pearls and sequins. A tiara of rhinestones and pearls was caught with a fingertip veil and she carried sweetheart roses, red carnations and stephanotis.

Shirley Langford was her cousin's maid of honour, wearing a green-taffeta gown, headpiece of yellow poms and carrying yellow chrysanthemums. Linda Rayner, the groom's sister as bridesmaid, wore a yellow net ballerina gown with headpiece of mauve poms. She carried mauve chrysanthemums.

Roy Langford sang the Lord's Prayer and The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden during the service and Robert Walker played the piano. David Bowman, Georgetown, was groomsmen and ushers were Victor Carter, uncle of the bride and the groom's brother Robert Rayner.

Receiving afterwards in the Odd-fellows Hall, the bride's mother wore dusty pink navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For a wedding trip to the States, the bride wore a gaborline suit with light blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Rayner are living in Georgetown.

Mrs. Shain Former
W.I. President

A resident here since 1928, Mrs. A. E. Shain, 67, died at her home on the Norval Road Saturday. Seriously ill for several months, her death followed that of her husband, on February 23rd.

The former Charlotte Prime, she was born at Eden Grove in Bruce County, daughter of the late Henry Prime and Mary Cooke. Her father was a seawayman and she lived in several communities where he served as a station agent, including Paisley, Pinkerton and Bruceville.

Married in Clinton in 1908, Mr. Shain, who was a CPR employee, and his wife lived first at Chatham, and later at Orangeville and Toronto, before they purchased their Norval farm. She was a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, and a former president of Norval Women's Institute and was particularly known as a "good neighbor" whose countless acts of kindness and cheery disposition endeared her to a particularly wide circle of friends in the district.

Surviving are two children, Kathleen and John of Toronto, and one sister Mrs. Elizabeth Brow, Detroit, Michigan.

Rev. J. E. Maxwell conducted the funeral service yesterday in St. Paul's Church, Norval. Pallbearers were Dick Licata, E. B. Tyers, Campbell Sinclair, Fred Tucker, John Wagstaffe and Jack Kellar. Seaforth. Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Orangeville.

Tells New Canadians Of Canadian Traditions

Sunday evening, Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IOOE extended a welcome to all New Canadian ladies in this district, when they were invited to the public library and heard an address on "Citizenship" by Sybil Bennett, MP.

The Regent, Mrs. H. J. Newman, introduced Mayor Jack Armstrong who, on behalf of the town, gave a cordial welcome to new citizens, offering to help them in every way possible with their citizenship problems. Miss Cathie Aufersmit, niece of Mrs. Lykls DeVries, who works in the Bank of Commerce, and has acted here less than a year herself, acted as interpreter for the Dutch guests. In his way they were made to understand the words of Mayor Armstrong.

Mrs. Newman introduced Miss Bennett, federal member at Ottawa, who mentioned it was the first occasion on which she has spoken in Georgetown since being elected to represent Halton in the House of Commons last spring. She gave a full and interesting talk on the Canadian traditions behind the government, and how we, and New Canadians in particular, could best uphold the high standards of democracy for which our ancestors fought for so many years. Miss Bennett painted a lively picture of the opening of Parliament, explaining the historical interest which lies behind each move of the ceremony. She also entertained the audience with several amusing anecdotes from her own experiences as a new Member.

The whole set up of government in this country was clearly reviewed and explained for the benefit of the newcomers.

For those who did not understand English too well, Miss Aufersmit again acted as interpreter, reviewing Miss Bennett's speech in the Dutch tongue.

Mrs. Percy Leslie moved a vote of thanks to Miss Bennett for her excellent address.
