Was Life Member Of Mission Society

Ill for some time at her daughter's home in town, Mrs. William T. Campbell, 77, died last Wednesday.

Native of Harriston, she was the former Annie Wilkins. She was married in Woodstock in 1900, and in 1905 Mr. and Mrs. Campbell moved to Toronto. He died in 1945. She was a member of St. Clair United Church, where she was active in the Ladies Bible Class and the Missionary Society. She was a life member of the latter group, and of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. For the past two years she had lived in Georgetown with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Peters.

She is survived by two daughters, Jean, Mrs. Lorne Peters of town and Grace, Mrs. G. M. Faskin, Toronto and a granddaughter, Barbara Ann Easton.

Rev. Alex Calder conducted the funeral service in the city on Saturday at the Jerrett Funeral Chapel. Interment was in Westminister Memorial Cemetery. Pallbearers were G. E. Peters, Joseph O'Keefe, A. L. Prior, J. Kennedy, W. F. Webster and F. Yates.

NORVAL

Festival Gold Medallist Wins Again at Brampton

Repeating her performance at Hutton Music Festival, where she was a gold medallist, a Norval schoolgirl, Joyce McLean, won another gold medal when she stood first in the open class at Peel Festival last week. It was the first year that Joyce had competed at either festival. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McLean.

Another Norval girl, Bonnie June McMeekin, who also was a medal winner at Milton, won the bronze medal in her class at the Peel Festival.

LOCAL ODDFELLOWS AT OAKVILLE SERVICE

A number of Georgetown Oddfellows were in Oakville on Sunday to attend the 80th anniversary and memorial service in St. John's United Church.

Rev. Harry Pawson was in charge of the service and the district deputy grand-master, W. H. Hamilton read the scripture taken from St. Luke X 25-37. The parade was led by Oakville Citizens Band and Canton Lodge.

played several selections on the piano - Accordion. Miss Stone served a delicious lunch.

Kenneth Grant has returned home after spending a week at Sick Children's Hospital for treatment. He is much improved in health.

Visitors with Mrs. Baily over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baily, P. R. Baily and Stephen.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris on the birth of a son, a little brother for Robert.
