Saturday Trousseau Tea
For Audrey Mitchell

Mrs. Richard H. Mitchell entertained on Saturday at a trousseau tea for her daughter Audrey, whose marriage to James Stone takes place this Saturday in Knox Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Mitchell and the bride-elect received guests during the afternoon and evening, and those who poured tea were the groom's mother, Mrs. Lorne A. Stone, Toronto, Mrs. Bertie Weston and Mrs. Joseph Carter.

Assisting in the tea and trousseau rooms were Miss Ruby Mitchell, the bride's sister, her aunt, Mrs. Robert Eason and cousin Miss Margaret Eason and Miss Anne Luke, Mrs. Edwin Sportill, Mrs. Albert Tuck and Mrs. Ted Rogers.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. William Anderson and Miss Kay Tyers entertained at a miscellaneous shower at Mrs. Anderson's home. A few days before, a presentation was made by fellow employees at Provincial Paper, Ltd. of a woollen blanket, sheets and pillow cases.

Former Resident Buys
Business at Queensville

Charles Jeffery, who sold his service station at Caledon at the first of the year, has now purchased another property at Queensville near Newmarket.

In his new business, Charlie will be a jobber for all petroleum products as well as the operator of a retail outlet. For the past five months Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery (Margaret Evans) and their children, Chuck, John and Ruth, have been living in Port Credit but have now moved to Queensville.

LOCAL MP GUEST AT CGIT DINNER

Speaking at a mother and daughter banquet Monday in St. John's memorial hall, Sybil Bennett, M.P. challenged the girls to consider well their choice of vocation and the application of Christian principles in daily living. Throughout the address, references were made to parliamentary customs and procedure which Miss Bennett has learned first hand as Halton's federal member at Ottawa.

The occasion was the annual event of the CGIT and Explorers groups at the United Church. About 150 were served turkey dinner provided by the girls and prepared by the leaders with assistance of W. A. members.

Mrs. Jack Watson was toastmaster. Toasts were proposed to the Queen, the mothers, and the two organizations. Those proposing and replying included Lorna Klingbiel, Mrs. Stan Allen, Mrs. C. J. Buck, Mrs. Gordon Kidney, Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth, accompanied by Mrs. John Barber led the group in a hearty sing-song.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to Miss Bennett by Mrs. Ernest Forgrave and Barbara Avery; Margery Mackenzie for her assistance in cooking classes during the year by Agnes Nelson; Mrs. Wrigglesworth, leadership in group singing by Paulene Watson; Mrs. Val Stein, weekly leadership in bible study, by Lynda Whitmee.

Leader of the Explorers, composed of girls from 9 to 12 are Mrs. Frank Whitmee, Mrs. Jack Watson and Mrs. James Dobbin. Leaders of the older CGIT girls, 12 to 17, are Mrs. John M. Smith, Mrs. Ernest Forgrave and Miss Lois Kidd.
