BALLINAFAD

Shows Fancy Sandwiches At W.I. Demonstration

A demonstration of making fancy sandwiches which were later served for lunch was an interesting feature of Ballinafad Women's Institute meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Snow. Mrs. Ken Cotton gave the demonstration. An embarrassing culinary experience made roll call humorous and interesting. Mrs. Frank Smith reported on the President's Conference at Guelph OAC and Mrs. Snow on the Dist. Annual. The ladies have completed a canvas for the CNIB building fund. Convener Mrs. J. McEwen and assistants Mrs. Fred Mack and Mrs. Ken Cotton read splendid papers.

The Evening Auxiliary held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. McEwen with an attendance of nine members and three visitors. Mrs. F. Shortill, the president, opened the meeting with a hymn and Mrs. Dick Shortill took the devotional. Members answered roll call by naming a foreign missionary. Cards and visits were recorded and plans made for a tea on July 14th. Mrs. E. Snow gave a reading on Christian stewardship. Mrs. Norma Sinclair took the topic "The Light of the World" from the 3rd Chapter of Revelations. The hostess and Mrs. Fred Shortill served lunch after the meeting was closed with a hymn and prayer.
