School's Out - -

SUMMER is a happy time for the youngsters, during their school vacation . . . They have been 'safety trained' in school, but boisterous spirits sometimes lead them to dart into roadways without looking first or to have the odd game of ball in the roadway.

PARENTS CAN HELP public safety by constantly reminding children of the dangers of traffic.

MOTORISTS CAN HELP by keeping an alert eye for youngsters on the road and by driving at reduced speeds in town.

NORVAL

Leslie-Cascadden Wedding at Norval

On Saturday at three o'clock in Norval United Church, Frances May, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cascadden was united in marriage with David James Leslie, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie, Hornby.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. D. Lemke, B.A., B.D., and the organist was Miss Audrey Bolton, Islington. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of soft blue with navy and white accessories and carried a bouquet of dark red carnations.

Miss Kathleen Cascadden, wearing pale pink tulle and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations was her sister's bridesmaid. Mr. Kenneth Hearns, Hornby, attended the groom.

A reception was held at Hilltop Lodge, Erin. The tables were very attractive with decorations of pink carnations and candles. After the cutting of the cake, the toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle, Mr. Roy Riley, Milford Bay. Mr. Cascadden gave a speech of welcome to guests and the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie left by car for a northern honeymoon and on their return will reside in the Grace Apartments in Georgetown.

Several Glen Williams ladies who are planning trips abroad were presented with bon voyage gifts when St. Alban's Ladies Guild had an anniversary supper on Monday in the parish hall. Mrs. Godfrey Christiansen is going to Denmark, and Mrs. P. Wagstaffe, Mrs. Ernie Miller, Mrs. Ted Appleyard, and Mrs. Jack Crawford are planning visits in England.

Mrs. George Preston, who has moved to Georgetown was another member honoured at the dinner.

CADETS, INSTRUCTORS AT SUMMER CAMP

Several members of the high school cadet corps will be taking summer army training this year.

Major Bill Herdman, corps commander, has been chosen to spend the summer at the national cadet camp at Banff and left yesterday, while instructor Alan Prouse takes over an instructor's post at Ipperwash. Another staff member, Blair Armstrong is attending a month's course at Camp Borden to qualify as an instructor.

Three members of the cadet corps are at Ipperwash Camp for training. Lieut. Harry Timleck, Cpl. Michael Lambert and Pte. Danny Martin.

WILL STUDY FRENCH IN QUEBEC HOME

A Georgetown high school student will spend an interesting summer in Quebec where she will be a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mercier at St. Cyrille near Drummondville.

Sylvia Lambert, daughter of principal J. L. Lambert, will study French first hand by living with this French Canadian couple and their five children. She is one of many such students from Ontario whose summers are arranged by the Visites Interprovinciales organization which also places French young people in English-speaking homes in Ontario.
