TRIP TO NIAGARA FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLERS

Ninety-eight students from Grades 7 and 8 of Chapel Street School had a day's outing to Niagara on Friday.

Accompanied by Principal Harold Henry and Mrs. James Evans, Miss Luena Campbell and Kenneth Harrison of the teaching staff, the party travelled in two buses on a trip financed by magazine sales last year. They stopped at Stoney Creek and Port Weller, where they saw two boats go through the locks and had dinner at Fort Mississauga before arriving at Fort George, one of the main points of interest.

At Queenston, most of the children climbed Brock's Monument, and the tour carried on towards Niagara, with brief stops at the Sir Adam Beck power project and the whirlpool. The groups divided at the Falls, some visiting the American side and others taking the trip under the falls.
