COUNCILLOR HOME FROM ENGLAND TRIP

A happy family gathering in Toronto welcomed home Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hale and Mrs. Hale's sister Mrs. L. Williams when they arrived home from a 9 week visit overseas a week ago Saturday night.

All members of the family met the train at Union Station to give the travellers a real welcome home.

Making their headquarters in London when they were in England, the party visited along the south coast and in Cardiff, Wales. The ladies have no close relatives in the old country, but Mr. Hale has four brothers and three sisters, whom they had not seen since his last trip in 1931 and there was a happy time of reunion.

They also called to see Mr. and Mrs. Andy Molozzi who are living in London while Mr. Molozzi is taking postgraduate engineering studies, and another former Georgetown, Albert Simson, who has married since he went to England to live and works for the London street railway system.
