Three Sisters Attendants Dolores Herrington Weds

Dies in Long Island EnRoute from South

En route to Glen Williams to spend the summer months, Mrs. Alice White, 84, died at Linbrook, Long Island, June 29th after suffering a stroke.

Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Mary Sherburn, lived for many years with the Wagstaffs in the Glen and her daughter, who lived at De Land, Florida, visited her annually until her death 19 years ago. Since then she had continued to spend the summers here and had a large circle of friends in the district. She attended St. Alban's Anglican Church, and a memorial service was held for her on Sunday.

With her three sisters as attendants, Dolores Joan Herrington was married Saturday in Knox Presbyterian Church to a Brampton man, Kenneth Norman Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Edgeworth Young. The bride, a member of the office staff of Alliance Paper Mills, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orby Herrington.

Rev. Alex Calder officiated at the double ring ceremony and the church was decorated with pink carnations and white mums. Jack Crichton was organist and Mrs. Donald Hancock sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony, and because during the signing of the Register, Mr. Herrington gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of French chantilly lace and nylon net over taffeta, with a lace cap, heddress and full length nylon net veil. She carried a bouquet of red Better Time roses and northland carnations.

Mrs. Ernie Capps, Brampton, matron of honour, wore mauve net over taffeta with lace jacket and hat and short mitts to match. She carried yellow Queen Elizabeth roses. Misses Joyce and Pauline Norrington were in similar ensembles in green and pink and their bouquets were tallman roses and Letra Hibberd roses. Little Patsy Ann Thompson, cousin of the groom, was flower girl wearing yellow taffeta, dutch hat and lace mitts and carrying yellow sweetheart roses.

William Garbutt, Georgetown, was groomsmen and the bride's brother Ronald and the groom's cousin, William Thompson, Ottawa, were ushers.

A reception was held in the Legion auditorium, where the bride's mother received wearing dusty rose nylon net, white and pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore powder blue lace over crepe, white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Travelling north for their honeymoon, the bride wore a rose suit, white accessories and pink rosette corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Young will live in Brampton where he is employed with Pease Foundry.

Guests attended the wedding from Ottawa, Acton, Harrison, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Huttonville, Fergus, Brampton, Milton and Georgetown.

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Object Queen Street Parking Restrictions

Two hour parking on Queen St. proposed at a recent council meeting, was thrown out the window at Monday's council meeting. A petition, signed by 14 residents and presented by William Hyde, changed a previous decision to inaugurate this, and council voted unanimously against a by-law which they had ordered prepared.

The restriction was aimed at checking parking in front of an apartment at the upper end of the street, and while some councillors felt this was a problem, there was no majority opinion in favour of action on this portion of the street.

A $12,500 advance was made to Georgetown Hydro Commission for 60 cycle conversion, pending issue of debentures.

Council was informed that the present policing contract would expire the end of this year, and a new contract with upwards revisions would come into effect in 1955.

Council and town officials will attend church service at St. John's United on Sunday, when Rev. John M. Smith will preach his last sermon before moving to Whitby.

FARM NEWS

PLAN TWILIGHT SOIL, CROP TOUR

The 1953 Twilight Tour of the Halton Soil and Crop Improvement Association was such a success, that in response to the demand a similar type of programme is being planned for the evening of July 15th, at the farmstead of J. Winter, near Malton, Ontario.

Many have expressed a desire to have a look at Jim McKay's renovated pasture on the flats at Malton
