WMS MEETING AT MISS IVENS HOME

The WMS met at the home of Miss Ivens on Thursday evening with vice president, Mrs. Houghley in charge. Text word 'Law' was answered by a verse of Scripture. Mrs. Smethurst and Mrs. Benton read interesting items. Scripture was read by Miss Ivens and prayer by Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Kirkpatrick read from the study book concerning work in Africa. Muriel Appleby sang during the program. The hostess served lunch afterwards.

The Shelbournes visited at the home of Mrs. W. Norrie, Toronto, on Sunday and with Ms. John Scott who is making satisfactory progress following an operation for a cataract.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs. Ronald Moore (nee Annamaria Spitzer) a recent bride and groom.

Mr. Alex Wright and Miss Shirley Wright were home from Toronto last week-end.

Peter Gibbons of Rockwood is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Bob Rogers.

Miss Marion Hall of Stayner has been holidaying with Mrs. Ellerby. Mr. Allan Ellerby is progressing favourably following an operation on his hip, resulting from an accident at work some time ago.

David McDonald of Georgetown has been holidaying with his aunt, Mrs. Gibby.

We are pleased to see Mr. Thornton home from Guelph General Hospital, where he has been since a heart attack five weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meredith have been on holidays at Manitoulin Island the past two weeks.

Donna and Carole Sinclair of Welland are holidaying with Joy Patterson.

Trudy Scott spent last week at Stewarttown with Barbara Carhart, who is spending holidays with her here this week.

UNION WMS MET AT MANSE IN NORVAL

An interesting meeting was held on Wednesday at the Manse, Norval, under the auspices of the Home Helpers section of the Union WMS. The first part of the evening was devoted to the normal meeting of the WMS and Mrs. Lloyd Crichton, president, opened the meeting with a prayer and Hymn 381 was sung. The scripture lesson was read by Miss I. Ostrander and a prayer was given by Mrs. H. Puckering. Mrs. D. Dolson, then favoured the company with the solo "Bless This House."

Some slides on the theme "A New Day for African Women" were then shown by Rev. L. G. Royal, who provided the commentary and emphasized the possibilities of the new mission field in Africa.

Mrs. W. Hunter presided over the second part of the meeting which consisted of an auction sale of goods made and donated by The Home Helpers. Mrs. S. Leslie was an efficient, and indefatigable auctioneer and a variety of goods, candles, cookies, teabags, plastic bags, jams, jellies, children's shirts and an excellent selection of dainty and useful aprons fell under the hammer. The sum of eighty odd dollars was raised for the missions and all concerned must be congratulated on the time and effort devoted to such a worthy cause. A most delicious and satisfying lunch was served by the luncheon committee: Mrs. J. McDonald and Mrs. A. McDonald.

STEWARTTOWN

Social Evening Held In School For Newlyweds

About 50 persons gathered in the school Friday evening to present a shower to John and Mrs. Dickenson and welcome Mrs. Dickenson to Stewarttown. Mrs. Bob Preston (Eleanor Smith) assisted with unwrapping the gifts which were passed around for all to see and every one enjoyed seeing them. One new girl especially, Wendy Stewart, demanded to 'look' every time a gift passed her way. John Dickenson thanked all the guests on behalf of his wife and himself. Mrs. J. Stewart and her helpers served a very dainty lunch. Ruby Tennant, Gail Smith and Ann Humphreys kept the records going for dancing, and everyone had an enjoyable evening.

Mr. W. Lawson and daughter Beth of Toronto were visitors with Mrs. Lawson last Saturday.

Mr. Campkin of Brampton had charge of the service in St. John's Church on Sunday afternoon and will return next Sunday while Rev. J. E. Maxwell takes a short holiday. Mr. Campkin commented on the improvements in the church, especially the beautiful sanctuary.

By 1970, Canada will have 1,500,000 people over 65, a pool of highly skilled and dependable labour which industry would be foolish to overlook - J. D. Morgan, Toronto Industrialist.

UNION GARDEN PARTY AGAIN GRAND SUCCESS

On Saturday evening the annual garden party of the Union Presbyterian Church was held in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie. The garden was, as usual, brightly and tastefully decorated. Rev. G. L. Royal officially opened the festivities and extended a warm welcome to both visitors and entertainers. Vince Mountford of Brampton, MC, opened the evening's entertainment with a big hello to the Union garden party and called for a round of applause for Mr. and Mrs. W. Leslie who have so generously given the use of their garden in the past. Mr. Mountford favoured with vocal selections and singing anecdotes throughout the evening. Betty Leslie, at one time accompanied to Sir Harry Lauder, was the smiling and versatile pianist. Highlights in a varied program were selections by the Hoy Fiddler, Graham Townsend, conjuring tricks to delight children and grown-ups alike by Jimmy Fyng and the singing of the popular "Little Red School House" by Beatrice Wylie and the amusing rendering of the "Little Train That Could" by the Paul Brothers. Towards the end of the evening Rev. L. G. Royal thanked Mr. and Mrs. Leslie for the use of their garden and for their generous cooperation in a worthy cause. He then presented Mrs. Leslie with a bouquet of roses.

During the intermission the booth committee and helpers were kept busy selling a fine selection of pies, cakes, hot dogs and coffee to the many visitors present.
