DEATHS

MURDOCK, John Robert—At Georgetown on Sunday, July 11, 1954, John Robert Murdock, beloved husband of Elsie Devereaux, aged 78 years.

The funeral was held from the McChure Funeral Home this afternoon with interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

CARDS OF THANKS

DEWHURST—Harvey and Elsie Dewhurst wish to thank neighbours and friends who were so kind in sending cards and flowers to Andrew while he was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, and since returning home.

DIXON—We wish to thank neighbours and friends for kindnesses shown to us at the time of our accident, and especially Glen Williams school and Sunday School for sending treats.—Betty Dixon and girls.

EVES—We wish to thank our friends and neighbours who were so kind to Mrs. Eves while she was a patient in the hospital, and for their kindness, messages of sympathy and floral offerings after the death of a dear wife and mother. These were much appreciated by us, and a special thank you to Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson for his consoling words.—The Eves and Dawson Families.

WILLETT—Mrs. Mary Willett wishes to thank her friends and neighbors who remembered her with cards, flowers, etc while she was in hospital and since returning home.

GLEN UNITED S.S.—Wish to say "thank you" to all those who gave salads, sandwiches and money towards our picnic. Especially thanking Mr. W. McGowan for all the lovely prizes and Mr. Noble of Georgetown Dairy for the chocolate milk.—The Glen United Sunday School.

BALLINAFAD

Ladies Groups Meet At Ballinafad Homes

The Ballinafad Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Jesse McEnery on July 8th. The meeting opened with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect, and the roll call was a garden hint that adds beauty to the farm. The agricultural convener, Mrs. William McLean was in charge of the meeting and after the singing of the Maple Leaf, the conveners reports were given and Mrs. Tom Gibson gave current events. Mrs. F. J. Shortill took the motto "Perfection is not expected, but improvement is." Mrs. William Kirkwood gave a reading "My Garden" by Edna Jacques and Mrs. McLean read a paper "A Wee Bit of Everything." Mrs. Bob McEnery was the winner in the tree contest. Ann Shortill sang a solo, and the Queen closed the meeting.

On Thursday, July 9th, the Evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Dick Shortill, Jr. with eleven members present and six visitors. Mrs. Norman Sinclair took the devotional and the minutes were read and plans made for the afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. F. J. Shortill on July 14th. Mrs. McLaughlin read an item on Temperance and Mrs. Elwood Snow gave a reading on "Stewardship in the Home." "A Letter to My School Teacher" was read by Mrs. Ernie McEnery and Mrs. R. Shortill gave a talk on starting our child to school. After a sing song, hymn 553 and the benediction the hostess served lunch assisted by Mrs. Ken Cotton.

Stone School Picnics Held at Pine Acres

Sunny skies seemed made to order for the picnic of the Stone School pupils, their parents and friends at "Pine Acres," home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Souther recently. The children enjoyed an afternoon of swimming and boating on the creek before their picnic supper. Then a treasure hunt led them a merry chase till the "treasure" was found in a bird's nest. A peanut scramble and races for all ages provided fun for everyone.

On behalf of the pupils, Miss Joan Rundle presented their teacher, Miss Marjorie Shaw, with a desk set, and wished her a happy holiday. Miss Shaw will be returning to teach at the Stone School in the fall.
