Two Smith & Stone employees were married at Stewarttown Saturday, with Rev. J. E. Maxwell officiating at the ceremony in St. John's Anglican Church.

Wedding principals were Freda Jeannine Humphreys, formerly a member of the Bell Telephone staff in the Georgetown office and Robert Morris Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cook of Stewarttown. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Humphreys, Stewarttown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore floor-length white nylon tulle over satin with a lace bodice and matching lace jacket with long pointed sleeves. A finger-ring veil fell from a tiara of pearls and she carried a white prayer book with white streamers and red sweetheart roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Betty Humphreys, was maid of honour and wore lime green tulle over taffeta, matching lace bolero and flower headpiece, and carried a nosegay of yellow roses and stephanotis. Mrs. E. Price was organist. Mervin Cook, Stewarttown, was his brother's groomsmen.

Guests from Toronto, East York, Beaverton, Richmond Hill, Oak Ridges, Norval and Georgetown attended the wedding and the reception afterwards in Esqueping Community Hall. Mothers of bride and groom received, Mrs. Humphreys wearing powder blue with grey accessories and corsage of red Sweetheart roses, and Mrs. Cook in mauve, white accessories and yellow rose corsage. The bride's going-away apparel was a powder blue suit, white accessories and corsage of red Sweetheart roses. The newlyweds will live in Georgetown.
