REBUILD STREETSVILLE FIRE-RAZED FACTORY

Rebuilding has already begun at the Graham Bell plant in Streetsville where a disastrous half million dollar fire occurred.

Many of the 165 employees are engaged in rebuilding work, and others will engage in production work in temporary quarters until the new building is ready later this year. The fire started above a baking oven in the cement block and frame building in the early evening. Brampton and Cooksville brigades assisted in fighting the fire.
