

Tells Brampton Industries
To Farmer Club Meeting

Mrs. Norman Cameron told about Brampton Industries and Miss Eleanor Macdonald gave a humorous reading as part of the program at a meeting of Terra Cotta Farmers

Club last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Macdonald. Vice president Donald Dolson was chairman for the meeting and Joan Kerr, Brampton, accompanied by Miss Gwen Little supplied music. Mrs. Peter Dick presided at the ladies' meeting preceding the joint meeting. Mrs. Clarence Lyons gave the motto. A humorous roll call had a good response.

One of the highlights at the annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association (Ontario Division) is the awarding of the trophy for the best agricultural reporting done by a weekly newspaper in the past year. The winner at the annual convention just held in Toronto was Dick Pearce, news editor of the Simcoe Reformer (left). Don Fairbairn, (centre), well known for his work with weekly newspapers in this province and for his popular radio program "Neighbourly News," acted as judge this year. With the two D's is the chairman of the Awards Committee for the Ontario division of the CWNA, Bill James (right), editor of the Bowmanville Canadian Statesman.

Toronto Township Man
Heads Conservation Board

D. Reddington of Toronto Township heads the Credit Valley Conservation Authority as chairman, with T. W. Glassford, Caledon, as vice chairman of the 16-municipality board which will deal with the report of the government survey now in progress. Elmer Wright, one of the prime instigators of the Authority is secretary-treasurer and a four man executive committee is composed of R. R. Parker, Acton; Eric White Mono; W. J. Wilkinson, Chingacousy; and George Nodwell, Garafraxa.

Four advisory boards have been set up to deal with problems which arise in the main phases of conservation work. Alex MacLaren, Georgetown heads the farm planning and land use board. W. M. Robinson, Brampton, is in charge of public relations. R. R. Parker is flood control chairman. W. M. Curry, Orangeville is in charge of reforestation.

A levy of two cents per person has been made on the municipalities to cover initial costs of setting up the Authority, these charges being assessed as follows:

NO. 8 IN A SERIES . . . YOUR HYDRO AT WORK FOR YOU AND YOURS

YOUR HYDRO
Provides More Power for Ontario

The official opening, August 30th, of the Sir Adam Beck-Niagara Generating Station No. 2, by Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Kent is in a large measure a tribute to the achievements of those who planned and constructed this great development . . . The Engineers, the Men of Labor, the Suppliers and the Contractors, who contributed to, and made possible the putting of this giant generating station into operation, well ahead of schedule.

By December 31 next, 6 units of this plant, with an installed capacity of 600,000 horsepower, will be in operation. Ultimate 16-unit capacity, including pumped storage, will be 1,828,000 horsepower.

Measured in horsepower the output of this plant is impressive. Measured in human benefits it is even more significant. New power for homes, for industrial plants, for business and for farms . . . more power for progress and better living for the people of Ontario.
