Pipers Add Gay Touch to Laidler-MacDougall Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lawrie Laidler, who were married in St. John's United Church on August 28th will be living in Cooksville when they return from a honeymoon at Bracebridge the end of this week. On Saturday, they were attendants at the wedding in Montclair of Janet Morris and Ben Simpson of Brampton who were bridesmaid and groomsmen at their wedding here.

Rev. J. L. Blair of Milton officiated and the church was decorated with gladioli for the wedding of Sylvia Joan MacDougall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwood MacDougall, who was a Smith and Stone office employee and member of Georgetown Girls Pipe Band. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Laidler, Cooksville, and is employed in Brampton with the Hydro electric commission.

Kenneth R. Harrison was organist and Anna Spitzer soloist. Miss Spitzer sang "O Promise Me" and "Because during the service."

The bride wore a gown of chantilly lace with nylon tulle pleated scalloped neckline. Her net veil had a wide border of chantilly lace and she wore a lace pillbox style hat. Seed pearls decorated the scalloped edges, with pearl fans decorating the top of each scallop. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

A feature of the bridal gown was a hand embroidered petticoat made by her great-great grandmother, worn only once before at the wedding of her aunt, Mrs. Ivan Wright of Dundalk.

There were four attendants. The bride's sister Maxine MacDougall as maid of honour wore blue, the top of lace with pearl drops and the skirt was tiers of net. Yvonne Lawrie, Timmins and Janet Morris, Brampton as bridesmaids wore green and pink net respectively while Jeanette MacDougall, another sister of the bride, wore yellow. All attendants carried bouquets of mums.

Ben Simpson, Brampton was groomsmen. Ushers were Al Gardner and Stan Smith, the groom's brother-in-law. Mr. MacDougall gave his daughter in marriage.

Two members of the Girls Pipe Band, Mrs. John Patterson and Miss Eileen Kerr, piped the wedding party into the church and played as the bride and groom left the church after the ceremony.

At the reception in St. John's Hall, the bride's mother and the groom's sister, Mrs. Stan Smith received guests. Mrs. MacDougall wore egg-shell taffeta, black velvet accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs.

Smith wore a black and flowered crepe dress, black accessories and a corsage of mums. The bride's travelling dress was nylon green with black print and flared skirt, black picture hat and accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

Wedding guests came from Dundalk, Timmins, Milton, Toronto, Lindsay, Cooksville and Brampton.

FLEW TO SCOTLAND FOR VACATION TRIP.

A local lady, Nan Scott and her sister are back home after a trip home to Scotland. They crossed the Atlantic by plane both ways.
