Lacrosse at an End Sarnia Takes Series

Ending a season which promised bigger things, Georgetown N&G lost a close match here, with Sarnia on Thursday to spell final to their hopes for a second Ontario championship.

In its first year last season, the team topped all entrants in the Intermediate B group to bring a lacrosse cup to Georgetown for the first time in half a century.

This year, the team finished well up in the league standing and won the playoffs with Streetsville for the right to be A finalists.

Sarnia proved too much and won their series in three straight games.

The N&Gs went down like champions on Thursday. There was no score in the first and Bob McCandless goal early in the second gave the locals a brief lead. Gibson came back with a Sarnia goal, and McCandless and Gord Wilson combined to again put Georgetown in the lead, with Brock evening the score before the period ended.

Sarnia scored twice in the third and Lull Louth added another for N&G. The fourth period was even, each team scoring once, Junior Beaumont doing the honours for his team. Final score 5-4 for Sarnia.

The Sarnia team is now involved in playoffs with Fergus and were beaten in Fergus on Saturday night.

NORVAL

CHURCH FUNERAL FOR MRS. JAMES LOREE

A Norval resident most of her life, Mrs. James Loree, 72, was buried in Hillcrest Cemetery on Saturday following the funeral service in St. Paul's Anglican Church.

Mrs. Loree, who lived in an apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend died in her sleep on Wednesday morning.

Formerly Ethel Birdette Robinson, she was born in Penrith, Cumberland, England and was a girl of three when her parents, John and Annie Robinson emigrated to Norval from England. Following her marriage, she lived in Trenton, and after her husband's death in 1928, she returned to Norval. She had lived there ever since, except for a few years which she spent with her daughter in Regina.

Mrs. Loree is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John Lee of London, three grandchildren, and two brothers, E. M. (Bert) Robinson of Midlothian, Ill., and H. C. (Herb) Robinson, Drumheller, Alberta. One son Jack died in 1936. She was also predeceased by four brothers and a sister, Edgar of Chicago, Dr. Ethelred of Denver, Col., Fred of Midlothian, Ill., Frank of Newmarket and Mrs. Edith Morgason, Norval.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. E. Maxwell. Pallbearers were William Townsend, Walter Fidler, Gordon Browne, Ormie Carter, Frank Fendley and Warwick Coupland.

ACTON NIGHT AT GOLF CLUB THURSDAY

Acton members of North Italian Golf Club, with Wesley Wolfe in charge, sponsored a special Men's Day on Thursday when a group of Acton men were guests at afternoon golf followed by a buffet turkey supper in the evening.

Mr. Wolfe remarked on the coincidence that all nine prizes for low net were won by Acton residents, when he presented prizes to Julian Zajac, Pat Dolphinn, Gord McCutcheon, Sam Brunelle, Mickey Holmes, Lorne Youngblut, E. Valey, George Williams and Fred Salt.

However Georgetown came into its own in other divisions with low gross prizes to Jim Linton, Ken Nash, Ted Bludd; Sam Mackenzie and Graham Farnell, and the "honorary golfer" prize to Walter Blehn. Jack Creighton and Harold Kinread had best poker hand scores and Jim Graham and George Barbeau won prizes for hidden holes.

Vice president Jim Linton spoke briefly, welcoming guests and announcing a special day for Milton visitors this afternoon.

—Plan your exhibit now for Georgetown's big fall fair in two week's time. You'll enjoy showing at this fair.

Fall Activities Planned At Meeting of IODE

Fall activities of Countess of Strathmore Chapter IODE got underway Monday with a supper meeting at the home of Mrs. Denney Charles.

The regent, Mrs. H. J. Newman presided and 21 members attended. Mrs. Percy Leslie reported 51 knitted articles sent to headquarters for shipment overseas. Members will again sell Christmas and everyday cards and wrappings as a fund raising scheme. Ruth Evans will convene this, with a committee of Jean Mackenzie, Mrs. R. H. Jones and Mrs. John Frost.

Another fall project is a flower draw, proceeds earmarked for the Korean Project fund. On fair day the chapter will hold its annual tag day for the blind, with Mrs. Percy Leslie as convener.

Next month the ladies will meet at the home of Misses Jean and Margery Mackenzie, when Mrs. Osler, a summer resident of Limehouse will be guest speaker. Notices of future meetings are to be mailed to members, with Mrs. Frost looking after this.

An interesting reading on India was given at the meeting by Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth. Coffee and cookies were served by the hostess.
