GOOD DAIRY CATTLE ENTRY, MILTON FAIR

All that is needed to ensure another great show at the Halton County Fair in Milton is favourable weather conditions on Saturday, September 25th. A total of some 250 head of Halton cattle have been entered for the Holstein, Jersey and Guernsey rings, where B. S. Beer, Brampton; Norman Baggs, Edgeley; and Harold Clapp, of Fraserdale

Farm, will be the officiating judge. In the Calf Club ring, 75 Halton 4-H Calf Club members will parade their calves for Fred Campbell, the manager of Toronto Stock Yards, who will be the official judge for this section of the show, which along with the Holstein show, will commence sharp at 11 a.m.

The Junior Farmer section which includes separate classes for educational displays for Junior Farmer Clubs; Junior Institutes; 4-H Home-making Clubs; 4-H Home Garden Clubs and 4-H Agricultural Clubs; will this year be housed in a new hall recently erected on the grounds by the Agricultural Society. Some 27 different junior organizations will be represented in this section.

C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, will officially open the fair on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Graham will note the progress which has been made by the county agricultural society since his last visit nearly ten years ago. The main hall will be filled with attractive Women's Institute displays; fragrant flowers; appetizing baking; not forgetting the arts, crafts, etc. For many the highlight is always the horse show and the races and the president Roy Currie assures that this end of the program will keep not only the grandstand, but the fences along the track packed throughout the afternoon.

Arts & Crafts Plan Sale and Exhibition

Plans for the annual exhibition and sale of the Georgetown Arts & Crafts were completed at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Denney Charles, last Thursday. The meeting was well attended and Mrs. H. J. Newman presided.

Four types of weaving will be demonstrated at the Exhibition and Sale, as well as shell work, paper-craft, spinning and art.

Those who attend the Exhibition and Sale at St. John's Hall, October 30th will find it a most interesting and educational afternoon as well as an opportunity to obtain unusual as well as practical gifts. Tea will be served under the convener'ship of Mrs. Sid Orr. Dorothy Stone display convener, and her committee are planning many artistic decorations to beautify the hall.

A charming painting by Winifred Watson was on display Thursday. Wilma Stull showed an embossed leather handbag expertly made in a box style. Lucy Molesworth whose work is well known showed samples of her pottery and Mrs. Wallace Thompson displayed three pairs of expertly made ladies gloves and a handkerchief with a hand tatted border.

Tea was served by Mrs. Charles and her co-hostesses Miss Molesworth, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Watson, Margery Mackenzie, Mrs. Jesse Wyatt and Miss Stull. Tea was poured by Mrs. A. G. M. Bruyns and Mrs. R. H. Wright.
