Reid-Garbutt Wedding Church Event at Allos

Following a honeymoon in the States, newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. William Swan Reid are living in Brampton. They were married on September 18th in Home United Church with Rev. Ross Muir officiating and standards of gladtiol and ferns decorating the church.

The bride, Mary Kathleen Garbutt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Garbutt, R. R. 4, Georgetown. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Reid, Brampton.

For her wedding, the bride wore an original gown of white eyelet embroidered nylon over net and taffeta, made by her mother. It was styled with a scalloped neckline and 4-tiered skirt. An appliqued silk illusion veil was held by a tiara of pearls and iridescent beads. She carried a cascade of mauve orchids, white gardenias and stephanotis.

Her attendants, Mrs. Margaret Harper, sister of the groom, Mrs. Betty Dickenson, sister of the bride and Mrs. Florence Corbett wore street length dresses of yellow, pink and blue embroidered nylon, flower headpieces and shoes to match. They carried nosegays of mauve, pink and white pom-poms. The groom's sister Mary Joan Reid, as junior bridesmaid, wore pale blue printed nylon, white floral head-dress and carried a nosegay of pink and white mums.

Anna May Hutchinson was organist and Mrs. Donald Dolson sang the Lord's Prayer and Still as the Night. Mr. Garbutt gave his daughter in marriage, the groom's brother-in-law Robert Harper was best man and ushers were the bride's brothers Bill and Donald Garbutt.

Receiving afterwards in the church parlours, Mrs. Alfred Garbutt wore a two-piece navy bengaline dress with white corded embroidery, white accessories and a corsage of red gladtiol. The groom's mother wore a gown of black lace over white taffeta with white accessories and corsage of red rosettes. For travelling, the bride wore a yellow suit, navy accessories and corsage of tangerine rosettes and stephanotis.

Star Fastball Pitcher Most Valuable Player

A number of local players have been playing in the Brampton Fastball league the past few months. The season for this league ended last Monday night and a local athlete and one of their top pitchers, won the "Most Valuable Player" award, Scotty Patterson who pitched for the local Legion football team until the Georgetown league was discontinued.

HORNBY

Hornby Resident Buried At St. Stephen's Cemetery

One of the older residents of Hornby, John H. C. Orr, 75 was buried in St. Stephen's Cemetery on Sept. 19, following funeral service in the church conducted by Rev. J. E. Maxwell.

A farmer and later operator of a service station on the 7th Line below the village, Mr. Orr was unmarried. He is survived by his sister May, with whom he made his home and a brother Robert.

The Orr family always took an important part in the affairs of the church and last year Mr. Orr and other family members donated a memorial gate and fence for the cemetery as a family memorial.

containers, plastic patterns, enamels for spraying on stoves and refrigerators and making of gas heaters. Mrs. Frank Wilson gave current events, the birthday song was sung for Mrs. Cecil Wilson.

Rally Day was observed at church Sunday morning with superintendent Bob Cunningham assisting the minister Mr. Williams. The story of four little boys in India was well told by Barbara Cunningham. Mrs. Ward Brownridge presented the diplomas and seals to the Sunday School scholars and the Banner Class for the second year was won by Mrs. Vern Pickett, girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Anderson and family of Montreal visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell and also attended Milton Fair on Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Thompson of Toronto spent a few days last week with Mrs. George Nurse.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruddell who will celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, October 5th. May this very fine couple enjoy many, many more.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McNabb and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McNabb enjoyed a few days last week at Manitoulin Island.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stringer on the birth of their baby son in Hamilton Hospital on September 23rd, the baby's mother's birthday.

ASHGROVE

HALTON'S INDUSTRIES TOLD TO INSTITUTE

The September Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leslie Giffen on the 21st with thirty ladies present. Roll Call was answered by "A vegetable that begins with the first letter of your name." Delegates appointed to the convention in Guelph October 7 and 8 were Mrs. Ernie Trudale and Mrs. James Carney. Four ladies were appointed to arrange a euchre party for November. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Thomas Giffen who had the ladies sing "My Old Kentucky Home." Mrs. Hector Bird gave some splendid thoughts on the motto "No man is ever poor who has a garden at his door." A piano solo by Mrs. Lloyd Davidson was followed by a talk on the industries of Halton by Mrs. Percy Merry. Some she mentioned in Milton were P. L. Robertson's, the brick yards and the large steel plant. In Oakville there is the Ford plant, basket factory, Glasco's jams and jellies, Langmuir paints, C.G. electric, Chase's ointments, place where air coils are-made, cosmetic
