See Niece Married In Autumn Bridal

The marriage of Barbara May Ellen Ellis and Douglas Reginald Chapman, both of Oshawa, was solemnized at Albert Street United Church in that city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ellis of Oshawa and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman of Colborne. Mrs. Chapman is a niece of Mrs. Fred McNally of town, and Mr. and Mrs. McNally and Mrs. George Herrington were guests at the wedding.

Chrysanthemums and ferns formed the background for the ceremony performed by the Rev. S. C. H. Atkinson. The wedding music was played by Mr. Ronald Kellington with Miss Amy Sargeant as soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The long sleeved bodice of chantilly lace complemented the full skirt of white nylon taffeta with two net overskirts, worn over a crinoline and sweeping into a long train. Idiosyncratic and seed pearls framed the neckline, and pearl flowers trimmed the bonnet headpiece which secured her fingertip veil. She carried an ivory bible with miniature white chrysanthemums and garnet red roses.

Mrs. Gerald Hill who was matron of honour for her sister wore dusty rose imported embroidered taffeta made in Princess style with a swifical neckline. The dress was worn over a crinoline and with a nylon net stole and matching mittens. Her headpiece was made of pink net and trimmed with flowers. She wore a single strand of pearls and matching earrings and carried a cascade of mauve chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Jean Chapman of Colborne, sister of the bridegroom, Phyllis Gardner of Sunderland, and Margaret Ellis, sister of the bride. All were gowned in aqua imported embroidered taffeta styled identically to that of the matron of honor. They carried cascades of yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Irene Carey, cousin of the bride was flower girl in floor-length yellow iridescent taffeta worn over a crinoline. She wore a yellow net and flowered headpiece and a yellow net stole and carried a horseshoe bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Gerald Hill was best man and the ushers were John Day, Harold El-

A Mexican "Piñata"

Roger Duvelain, an eminent Swiss-born American illustrator of children's books, has donated five designs to the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) to be used in a series of greeting cards which UNICEF will sell this year for the benefit of underprivileged children throughout the world. One of the designs, set above, shows a blindfolded Mexican boy trying to strike down a grotesque but candy-filled figure made of clay and colored paper that hangs from a tree in the popular Christmas game, "La Piñata."

lis and Leonard Chapman.

A reception was held in the UAW Hall where the bride's mother received wearing rose tan crepe with rust accessories. The bridegroom's mother who assisted was in charcoal blue crepe with black accessories. Both wore corsages of chrysanthemums. After supper an orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Later Mr and Mrs. Chapman left for a wedding trip to New York and northern Ontario and on their return will live in Oshawa. For travelling the bride wore a dusty rose gabardine suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

4-H HOMEMAKERS COMPETE AT CNE

In the awards of 4-H Homemakers at the Canadian National Exhibition in the inter-county exhibits, the Halton representatives from the Hornby Club were one of the three county exhibits winning the first group award. "Vegetables to Keep Us Fit" was the title of their exhibit, with Margaret Stark, of Milton R R 4, acting as the able commentator. The leader of the 4-H Home-making Club at Hornby is Mrs. Delbert Downs.

134 4-H Homemakers from as far north as Temiskaming District, and representing a total of 16 counties and districts, participated in the judging programme.

In Group A the following 4-H Halton Homemakers were noted: Ruth Featherstone, Helen Vivian, and Glennie Rose, of the Nelson Club; Marilyn Cleave, Joan Harrop and Jean McLaughlin of Norval and Margaret Stark, of Hornby.

Group B - Barbara Cunningham, Ashgrove, Shirley Downs and Marilyn Wrigglesworth, of Hornby; Heatheranne Hayward, Milton; Joan McCarron of Nelson.

Mrs. Mabel Borgstrom, Home Economist, and her able local Club Leaders, are doing excellent work among the Junior Homemakers.

JUNIOR FARMERS AT MILTON OUTSTANDING

The Halton Junior Farmer Section featured the displays and exhibits housed in the new hall just completed on the Milton Fair Grounds this past summer. In all, 27 different Halton juniors organizations staged educational displays.

The Junior Farmer section is divided into five different classes and the awards in each were as follows:

Class 1, Junior Farmer Displays—Grade A, Milton and Acton; Grade C, Palermo and Norval; Class 2, Junior Institute Displays—Grade A, Milton and Palermo; Grade B, Norval; Grade C, Acton.

Class 3, 4-H Homemaking Clubs, Grade A, Hornby; Balfinford, and Nelson; Grade B, Omagh; and Limehouse; Grade C, Acton; Mertón; and Ashgrove.

Class 4, 4-H Home Garden Clubs, Grade A, Dublin; Hornby; and Omagh; Grade B, Acton; and Lowville; Grade C, Ashgrove.

Class 5, 4-H Agricultural Clubs—Grade A, Halton 4-H Grain Club; Halton 4-H Legume Club; Halton 4-H Jersey-Guernsey Calf Club; Grade B, Halton 4-H Holstein Calf Club; Halton 4-H Tractor Maintenance Club.

Grand Champion award for the best educational display in the entire section was won by Milton Junior Farmers, for their display on "Farm Safety."

Miss Florence P. Eadie, of the Women's Institute Branch, Toronto, and Prof. O. Kennedy, of the Animal Husbandry Department at the Ontario Agricultural College, were the official judges. Both commented on the high standard of the displays which according to all reports excel those in most other centres of the province.

Officers and members of the Halton Junior Farmers, the members and leaders in the 4-H Homemaking, Garden, and Agricultural Clubs, may all be justly proud of the result of their thought and effort.
