EXTOLS SCENERY OF TOWN SURROUNDINGS

34 River Drive,
Georgetown, Ont.,
October 3, 1954

Editor, The Herald:

Dear Sir:-
The beauties of nature of which the poets of the past have written, is, I feel, unexcelled anywhere than in the immediate surroundings of our Georgetown.

One has only to travel north on the ninth line for a few miles before coming to vistas of unparalleled and incomparable beauty. This is no doubt true of many rural locations throughout this fair land, but we need take second place to none for scenic grandeur.

Perhaps we spend too little time in appreciation of such things, but one cannot help but feel his own infinitesimal smallness when we see the greatness of the Creator exemplified in the glories of nature at this change of season.

Yours truly,
Ed A. Peters

NORVAL

MEDICAL MISSIONARY WMS SPEECH SUBJECT

Last Tuesday the Norval Presbyterian WMS held their monthly meeting in the church basement.

Mrs. Harold McClure presided and Mrs. F. Fendley read the scripture from Matthew. Roll call was answered by the name of an early missionary and jams and jellies were received for the sick in hospital. Mrs. Sam McClure and Mrs. Hyatt McClure led in prayer.

After a discussion of plans for the fall thanksgiving meeting Mrs. S. Hardie gave a talk on the famous Alaskan medical missionary Dr. Albert Schweitzer. Lunch was served by Mrs. W. J. Reed and Mrs. Hyatt McClure.

LIMEHOUSE

ROGERS BABY ONE OF THREE CHRISTENED

Little Madeline Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers, was one of three infants christened by Rev. J. E. Maxwell in Norval Anglican Church on Sunday afternoon. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Louth and Mrs. Marshall Timbers. Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rogers on Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbons, Peter and Garry of Rockwood, Mrs. Rogers, Guelph, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Louth and Mrs. Marsh Timbers of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills were guests at the Shain-Hanlon wedding in Schomberg R.C. church on Saturday and the reception following. Congratulations to the W.L. ladies who won prizes at Georgetown Fall Fair. The group had four 1sts, six 2nds, six 3rds and two 4ths.

The Norton and Latimer families attended the silver wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Campbell in Hamilton, Sept. 25th.

Communion services were held at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on October 3rd. Those joining by profession of faith were Mrs. John Crichton and Mrs. Eva Mundell.

Mrs. Collyer has been visiting her daughter, Miss Doris Collyer at her cabin on the fourth line.

Mr. Donald Hargreaves spent the week-end in St. Catharines.

We extend sympathy to relatives and friends of the late Mr. W. A. Lane who passed away Monday morning, also to Mr. F. Kersey whose wife passed away the end of the week.

INADVERTENTLY OMITTED
In reporting the Scout Ladies' Cooking School last week we omitted saying that Norton Floral had supplied the flowers on the second night of the school.

Eucre Players Too Get Raise in Rates

On Friday a number of eucre fans gathered at the IOOF Hall for a friendly little game, on the first night of the marathon eucre.

There was no strike vote taken, but the committee decided to raise the pay an extra 25c an hour, making it now $2.50 for the first two hours.

Prizewinners were: 1st, Mrs. Norman Snyder, 2nd, E. Hurren, 3rd, Mrs. Tom Warnes, 4th, H. Reed, Milton. Door prize went to William Lyons and consolation to Mrs. Smith, Milton.

Mrs. Warnes received a prize for being the first person to sign the register on the first night of the marathons which will continue for several more weeks.
