Pine Falls Reception For Golden Wedding

A reception in The Chateau, Pine Falls, Manitoba, on Sunday, September 19th honoured Mr. and Mrs. William Bird who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on that day.

Mr. Bird, whose brother Thomas lives in town and who is a native of Norval, retired in 1951 from his position as head of the power plant at the Abitibi papermill there. Since leaving Norval as a boy, he has had an interesting history. He learned cheesemaking in the factory at Norval Station which was operated by the late Robert Groat, then went to Brantford to work in a cheese factory there. Later he worked for a short time for George Rice whose prize Holstein Calamity Jane had a record as a milk producer unique at that time. Young Bird was in charge of milking this famous animal.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BIRD

He worked for the T. Eaton Co. when they were building their addition on the downtown Toronto store, was transferred to Winnipeg for a similar job, staying in their engineering department until he took a position in Pine Falls. One contribution to his community which he has made is his direction of first aid training in the mill and as a St. John Ambulance instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird were married in Toronto on September 19, 1904, by the Reverend Comfort. A son Stanley and wife, Toronto, daughter Marlon Thorne and her husband of London, son Bill and his family of Winnipeg and Mr. Bird's sister Margaret of Dundas joined with two hundred friends of Pine Falls for the occasion.

Canon Walters presented a purse to the honoured guests on behalf of their friends of Pine Falls and district. A bouquet was given to Mrs. Bird by little Beverley Low. Gifts were also presented on behalf of the Order of the Eastern Star by Mrs. F. Legall, the Ladies Auxillary of the B.E.S.L. by Mrs. A. B. Robinson, and by May Jackson of the Ladies Guild of the Anglican church.

Mrs. J. Desllets sang "I Believe" accompanied by Mrs. J. Lyons. A toast was proposed by Mrs. D. Robertson and was responded to by Mr. Bird, who in turn proposed a toast to Canon and Mrs. Walters on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. A presentation was made to the canon and his wife by Mrs. E. Wilson on behalf of the church Ladies Guild.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Arthur Norton Dies Suddenly at Home

A few days after returning home from hospital where she had undergone an operation, Mrs. Arthur Norton, 50, died suddenly at her home in Glen Williams last Tuesday.

Daughter of Mrs. Hale and the late Hazelton Hale, she was the former Ann Hale, and was born at Malton. Her family moved to Georgetown when she was a young girl, and she lived here until her marriage, and since then in Glen Williams. She attended St. Alban's Anglican Church and took part in activities of various ladies' groups in the church.

Her death was the second break in the family circle within a month. A younger brother George died suddenly in Kingston three weeks ago while she was in hospital. She is survived by her husband and six children, William of Rockwood, Mrs. James Valantite, (Ruth) of Georgetown, Reg of Toronto, Charles of Acton and twins Mildred and Lillian at home. A daughter died in infancy and a son Kenneth was killed in action in the Korean war.

She also leaves her mother, two brothers Gordon and Bert and a sister Beattie, Mrs. William Davidson, in western Canada and a brother Clarence, (Huck) Hale in Toronto. There are seven grandchildren, one whom she never saw, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norton of Acton, who was born in Guelph last week-end.

Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson of St. Catharines, former Anglican rector at Georgetown and Glen Williams conducted the funeral service on Friday at her home. Pallbearers were Henry Castator, Woodbridge, Benny Fox, Kingston, Har-

Theatre Pianist For Silent Movies

An accomplished pianist, and a member of a quintette of sisters who made many appearances at garden parties and church functions around Georgetown several years ago, Mrs. Dorothy Swan, 61, was buried in Greenwood Cemetery last Wednesday following funeral service in St. George's Anglican Church.

Mrs. Swan, who had been seriously ill since her mother's death two years ago, had been a Brampton and Georgetown businesswoman for many years. She started the present Hunt's Fish & Chip store in Brampton, later purchasing the Georgetown grocery and confectionery store on Main Street North which she operated with her mother until two years ago. The store recently reopened under the ownership of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Girard.

Dorothy May Loud was born in Liverpool, England, daughter of George Loud and Esther Elizabeth Mills. She came to Canada following her marriage to the late James A. Swan and lived in Acton for some years and then in Toronto. The older residents will remember her as pianist in theatres in Acton and Georgetown in the days of the silent movies. Her four sisters were accomplished violinists and she accompanied them during their days as entertainers.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. John Cordaro (Katherine), Mrs. Archie Girard (Jessie), Mrs. Frank Penson (Mildred) and Mrs. T. McDonald (Edith) of Brampton. The funeral service was held in the church where she was a faithful attendant, with Rev. J. E. Maxwell of Norval in charge of the service. Pallbearers were Wilfred and William Penson, Tom McDonald, Mike Smith, Tommy Fitzpatrick and Teddy Girard, and flower bearers were George and David Penson.

YOUNG STREET-PAVED

A fine addition to central Georgetown is the new pavement on Young Street, providing a smooth road in place of the former surface which was continually pocked and rutted.

Money goes to work every day ...

When you see a contractor on a job, a bank loan may be helping to finance it.

Farmers and other primary producers borrow from a bank to buy equipment, meet seasonal needs.

Manufacturers and merchants use bank credit to help buy materials, process and market goods.

The benefits of bank credit run through all personal and commercial life. Bank credit operates silently, but on every hand you have satisfying assurance that it is "at work" ... in all types of communities, for all sorts of worthwhile purposes. The chartered banks continually adapt their many services to meet the changing, expanding needs of modern enterprise and modern living.
