THE GEORGETOWN HERALD
 Wednesday Evening, Oct. 6th, 1954

An accomplished pianist, and a member of a quintette of sisters who made many appearances at garden parties and church functions around Georgetown several years ago, Mrs. Dorothy Swan, 61, was buried in Greenwood Cemetery last Wednesday following funeral service in St. George's Anglican Church.

Mrs. Swan, who had been seriously ill since her mother's death two years ago, had been a Brampton and Georgetown businesswoman for many years. She started the present Hunt's Fish & Chip store in Brampton, later purchasing the Georgetown grocery and confectionery store on Main Street North which she operated with her mother until two years ago. The store recently reopened under the ownership of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Girard.

Dorothy May Loud was born in Liverpool, England, daughter of George Loud and Esther Elizabeth Mills. She came to Canada following her marriage to the late James A. Swan and lived in Acton for some years and then in Toronto. The older residents will remember her as pianist in theatres in Acton and Georgetown in the days of the silent movies. Her four sisters were accomplished violinists and she accompanied them during their days as entertainers.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. John Cordaro (Katherine), Mrs. Archie Girard (Jessie), Mrs. Frank Penion (Mildred) and Mrs. T. McDonald (Edith) of Brampton.

The funeral service was held in the church where she was a faithful attendant, with Rev. J. E. Maxwell of Morval in charge of the service. Pallbearers were Wilfred and William Penion, Tom McDonald, Mike Smith, Tommy Fitzpatrick and Teddy Girard, and flower bearers were George and David Penion.

"He charged nothing for his call... but it saved me lots of hard cash over the years"

"When I first thought of life insurance, I looked only at the size of the premiums I'd have to pay. Then a man from The Mutual Life of Canada said: 'Premiums aren't everything. A well-managed company pays its policyholders good dividends. Premiums less dividends — that's the real cost of your insurance.'"

"I studied the dividend record of The Mutual Life and decided to take all my insurance with that Company. It has certainly paid me. That helpful, young man charged nothing for his advice — but it has saved me lots of hard cash over the years."

You, too, should seek adequate protection for your family at lowest net cost. Consult The Mutual Life of Canada representative in your community today.
