Roll Call Indicates Ladies Like Travel

Engaging Women's Institute October meeting was held last Wednesday evening at Mrs. Walter Lawson's home. Mrs. John Murray presided during the opening service. Roll call was answered with "What country I would like to visit and why." Some of the answers were Scotland, Holland, Canada, Pakistan, United States, England, especially London. Mrs. Armstrong read minutes of the last meeting. It was decided to apply for the Government grant. Members were asked to take the penny bags in support of the mental health fund. The treasurer Mrs. Humphreys reported she had a few of the Engaging WI cook books which would be excellent Christmas gifts. Mrs. W. Lawson and Mrs. Baily were hostesses for lunch. With the rest of Canada, we had the flood last Friday night; the creek was uncomfortably high, covering gardens and lawns. Our sympathy goes out to all those suffering loss and pain.

Happy birthday to Bill Sanford who will be 12 years old next Monday, October 25th. Gail Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, was christened by Rev. J. E. Maxwell at St. John's church Sunday afternoon. W.A. meeting will be held this Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Blizzard's home.

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL ATTEND WARDEN'S DINNER

When Warden W. P. Oswald of Bruce is host at dinner in Chesley public school auditorium this Friday three local people will be numbered with the guests.

His son John, of the Bank of Commerce staff, is going up for the evening, as well as Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie, friends since Mr. Leslie's term as Halton warden when both men served on the Ontario Agricultural Council. Mrs. C. E. Biehn of Chesley, mother of the Herald editor will also be one of the guests.

CRUISES WITH NAVY TO SOUTH AMERICA

A Georgetown sailor, Midshipman Paul Barber, has left on a cruise to South America aboard HMCS Quebec, and will be away from his base at Halifax for eight weeks. The young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barber is following in the footsteps of his brother David, also with the navy, who took the same training cruise a few years ago.

BENNETT EXECUTOR OF MILLIONAIRE ESTATE

S. G. Bennett, R. R. 1 Georgetown a close personal friend of J. S. McLean, founder of Canada Packers, Ltd. is one of the executors of the seven million dollar estate left by the Toronto man. Bulk of the $7,286,847 estate will go to the McLean Charitable Foundation, established nine years ago, with income from capital investments of the foundation distributed annually by the three executors, Mr. Bennett, William F. McLean and Norman J. McLean. Death duties are expected to amount to about $2,750,000.
