

TERRA COTTA

Peck Christmas Parcel For Club's Adopted Boy

The Thimble Club met at the home of Mrs. Norman Icam, Queen St., Georgetown, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. The meeting opened with the singing of "Bless This House", and the roll call was answered by "something found in the medicine chest". The evening was spent in pecking a Christmas parcel for the club's adopted boy in France. A social hour followed, being in charge of Mrs. Icam with Mrs. McCrae and Miss Wright as assistants. The December meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Wilson, Terra Cotta.

We are glad to report Mrs. Charles Sheppard is home from hospital. Mr. Harvey Puckerlog is up north, deer hunting.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. H. Elwood over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. A. Cameron and family, Gordon and Rowland Cameron, and Mr. Earl Grant, all of Toronto.

100 Oddfellows Honour
Ontario Grand Master

Over one hundred Oddfellows representing lodges from Georgetown, Alton, Milton, Orangeville and Brampton of Credit District No. 33, enjoyed a turkey dinner in the Oddfellows Hall last Thursday evening in honour of Bro. N. A. Foster, Grand Master of Ontario.

The banquet opened with grace and a toast to the Queen. Bro. W. Marshall, PDDGM, in proposing a toast to Grand Lodge, mentioned it was the centennial year of Grand Lodge and also that Orton Lodge, Georgetown, was in its 81st year.

Bro. Foster replied to the toast and spoke on how Grand Lodge operated and that every Oddfellow had to play his part for it to function well.

Guests at the head table were: Grand Master Newton A. Foster and Mrs. Foster, DDGM Harvey Dewhurst, D.D. President of the Rebekah Lodge Sister Edna Spence, DDGW Bert Haines, PDDGM Vic Sharpe, Noble Grand Jim Collier, Noble Grand Jim McClelland, Noble Grand Ralph Harkies, Noble Grand Russell Jenkins, Noble Grand Bill Pegg.

After the dinner the guests went upstairs for the balance of the evening. Harvey Dewhurst acted as chairman and welcomed the visitors. He introduced Bro. H. Hansen, who sang, accompanied by Bro. Willis McNecley at the piano.

Sisters of the Rebekah Lodge were introduced and presented with a small gift in appreciation for their efforts in providing the dinner.

Mr. Jack Holland of Bolton entertained with his magic, using the Grand Master and his wife in some of his tricks.

Bro. Foster was then introduced by his representative in this district, DDGM Harvey Dewhurst. Bro. Foster gave a very sincere and thought-provoking address, speaking for an hour. He stressed that in Oddfellowship co-ordination was needed right down to the last individual, and appealed to all Oddfellows to live up to their obligations.

Bro. William Haines thanked the Grand Master on behalf of those present. Bro. Bert Haines presented Mrs. Foster with a bouquet of roses. Bro. Harvey Dewhurst presented Sister Edna Spence with a cup and saucer, and the Grand Master with a set of gold cuff-links. One of the highlights of the evening was when the Grand Master presented Past DDGM Vic Sharpe of Orangeville with a past grand's jewel.

Each of the Noble Grands was called on and expressed that theirs was a most enjoyable evening. Bro. Chambers of Milton spoke a few inspiring words. The meeting closed with O Canada.

Eccles McClure Home From Overseas Trip

Mr. Eccles McClure returned home on Wednesday, October 27th, after having spent a month with the International Plowmen's Tour to Kilarney, Ireland. There were about 20 altogether in the party from the Georgetown-Brampton vicinity, including Mr. McClure's uncle, James Eccles and his cousin, Jim Eccles Jr. and his wife.

The group returned home on the S. S. Queen Elizabeth, which also brought the Queen Mother Elizabeth over on her American visit. Eccles was able to view her at close range, and reports that she looks just like her pictures, and is just as gracious and friendly as her pictures would indicate.

The plowmen left Toronto for Montreal on September 20th, and sailed on the Empress of Scotland, arriving at Greenock, Scotland on the 27th. They toured Ireland, Scotland and England, visiting many places of note. One of the most impressive features of their trip was the attendance at a service in St. Paul's Cathedral, London.
