Mrs. William Clark Wins IODE Flower Draw

A showing of films in the near future, including the Royal South African Tour, was planned by the Countess of Strathmore Chapter, I.O.D.E. at their regular November meeting held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Percy Leslie.
Twenty-five members were present, with the regent, Mrs. H. J. Newman presiding. Members are donating gifts, candy and nuts for Christmas for the Chapter's adopted school in Haliburton, and a bale of clothing will also be packed. Mrs. Richard Crichton is in charge of this activity.
The Chapter donated $25.00 to the Hurricane Relief Fund. Mrs. Wallace Thompson was appointed film convener, and a committee was named for the Valentine dance.
Mrs. Newman made the draw for the lucky winner in the flower raffle. Mrs. William Clark won the flowers. Proceeds from the draw went to Korean Relief. Miss Ruth Evans is convening the sale of Christmas cards by the Chapter members.
Mrs. Leslie was assisted by the social committee, Mrs. William Heynolds, Mrs. Garfield McGillivray, Mrs. Percy Saxe, Mrs. Robert Jones, Miss Helen MacDonald and Miss Hilda Erwin, in serving refreshments.

HUNTERS BAG FOUR FOXES
