182 Attend District Firemen's Dinner

Organizer of the Credit District Firemen's Association five years ago, Ed. McNeely, North York was special speaker at their first banquet held last Tuesday night at the Legion Hall. 182 Firemen and their ladies sat down to dinner, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion catered.

The executive officers of the organization are: Frank Jones, president; Chief Jordan, Humber Summit, 1st vice-president, and Clarence Spencer, Georgetown, 2nd vice-president.

After dinner there was modern and old-time dancing to music supplied by part of the "Melody Kings Orchestra" with Reg. Kysal, and Earl Scott and his fiddle, of the Blue Valley Boys. Fireman Murray Currie was caller-off for the square dancing.

Visitors present, besides Mr and Mrs. McNeely included Reeve and Mrs. Stan Allen, Councillor Irwin Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Savings. Reeve Allen extended a welcome from the town to members of the association.

Bucko Won't Need Corsets

Sports fans will be interested to hear some news of Bucko McDonald, who is probably the only man who has played hockey in Georgetown wearing corsets.

It was during one of the famous games with Sundridge that the jovial M.P. and ex-NHL star was presented with this novel addition to his uniform by a lady Raiders rooter. . . . Just one of the incidents which made the Sundridge-Raiders series one which will never quite be forgotten.

Via the Durham Chronicle, we read that Bucko, who managed the Raiders from the sidelines last year, is dieting to reduce his weight by some 35 or 40 pounds and may become playing coach for the team which he has guided to the finals year after year.
