Local Families Bereaved When Clinton Martin Dies

Clinton Earl Martin, son of Joseph Martin, and the late Clara Sanderson, and brother of Mrs. Jack Armstrong and Mrs. George Glassford, of town, died suddenly in Montreal, on Sunday, November 7. He was in his 61st year.

Mr. Martin was born in Albion Township, on his parent's farm on the 3rd Line. He spent his youth there, and farmed for a number of years. In later years, he has been associated with his brother in owning and training trotting horses.

Rev. M. McFarlane held the funeral service from the McClure Funeral Home on Wednesday, November 10th, with interment in Caledon East Cemetery. Pall-bearers were Ed. Stinson, Toronto, Paul, Michael and Martin Armstrong, George Mills, Albion; and Gordon Martin, Hamilton.

In addition to his father and two sisters in town, Mr. Martin is survived by two brothers, John and Fred of Maple.

MRS. M. FEY INJURED IN FRIDAY ACCIDENT

As a result of an unfortunate accident on Friday morning, around 9.30, Mrs. Maude Fey, mother of Mrs. John Evans, Jr. fractured her hip, and is now confined to Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

Mrs. Fey was shaking some mats from the loading platform at the back of the Georgetown 5c to $1.00 Store, when the railing gave way. Mrs. Fey had been staying with her daughter and son-in-law for a few weeks.

BERNICE CAIN FETED PRIOR TO MARRIAGE

Before her marriage to Earl Emond, on Friday, November 5th, Bernice Cain was honoured on several occasions, with presentations and showers.

The girls and boys of the Assembly Dept. and Stockroom of Smith & Stone Ltd., presented her with a tritlight lamp. The bowling team, of which the bride is a member, the "Flying Saucers", presented her with an electric tea kettle. And on Wednesday, November 10th, Verna Speers, Vera McKee and Marguerite Hedley were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower held at the home of Mrs. Jack (Dorothy) Hamilton.

MRS. FRED ARMSTRONG 4-H HOMEMAKERS CLUB

The first meeting of the 4-H Homemakers Supper Club was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Armstrong with Mrs. DeVries as assistant leader.

Ruby Tennant was elected president, Ruth Wilson, secretary, and Johanne Hodge press reporter. The name of 7th Line Susies will be their informal name.

Working procedures were discussed and experiments made in recipe measurements. Meeting closed with lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Armstrong.
