Guild Presentation for Member Moving to Town

The regular meeting of St. John's Guild was held Tuesday evening at Mrs. Densmore's home, 6th Line, 11 members present. Mrs. D. Barclay presided in the absence of the president. The financial statement showed the bazaar to be a decided success. Plans were made to carry on the work at the church and for the Christmas Party. Mrs. William

Walker who had recently moved to Georgetown was presented with 4 cups and saucers and a special lunch served in her honour. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Junior W.A. meeting was held last week at Mrs. Bally's home. Susan Canham chose "The Wise Men Bring Their Learning" for the opening hymn and conducted the worship service. Ineka Kousing presented the Sunday Pledge "The Sunday School by Post". Roll Call 10 present. Carol Devereaux read last week's minutes seconded by Susan Smith. Scrap books were made in the busy period. Meeting closed with the Vesper hymn and repeating "The Grace" in unison.

The W.A. meeting was held on Thursday afternoon at Mrs. C. Blizard's home. Meeting commenced with the opening form of service, finishing and binding a quilt was the work for the afternoon. Mrs. Blizard served afternoon tea.

The second meeting of the 7th Line Sister was held at Mrs. Armstrong's home Saturday afternoon, November 30th. The meeting was opened with the secretary's report. This was seconded by Jo-Ann Hodge. The afternoon was spent in demonstrating how to make thin and medium sauces for soups and vegetables, which were much enjoyed by the girls.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Rev. Alex Cowan Here For Organ Dedication

"We should praise God at all times and concentrate our thoughts on life's blessings which are many" Rev. Alex. Cowan told a capacity congregation in Glen Williams United Church Sunday evening.

Mr. Cowan, former minister of the church who now preaches in Sudbury, was present for the dedication of the new organ and assisted the minister, Rev. A. H. Muir in the dedication, after which Mr. Alf Goodwin took his place at the console. The choir was assisted by William O'Hearn, Brampton and Mrs. Doris and Hancock of the Glen, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Jack Addy. Many were present from Norval and Home churches, the other points on the Norval charge where Mr. Cowan was minister from 1949 to 1952. Mrs. Cowan and their daughters Susan and Joan were also present and a social hour with refreshments was held in the Sunday school room following the service.
