And if this is so, the editor could fill this issue with cards of thanks, so many were the kind enquiries during a brief illness which proved not so serious as at first we feared.

We were back at the helm last week, but so busy getting back to routine that we didn't have time to say "Thanks."

While our good wife was renewing her acquaintance with office routine, she was deluged with offers of assistance, with kind

They say one doesn't appreciate friends wishes about our recovery and with cooperation from advertisers and correspondents in submitting copy early.

These have been much appreciated, along with the patience of printing customers who have been held up with printing orders while the Herald was short-staffed.

With all members of the staff back to work, and an extra man joining the Herald, we are quickly returning to normal. We, too, are making plans to keep up with a growing town, and the Herald will be growing with it.

Such growth is staggering in its implic-

SUFFERS BROKEN RIB MAIN ST. ACCIDENT

Mr. Jack Hepburn, Glen Williams, suffered a broken rib as a result of an unfortunate accident last Saturday afternoon, on Main Street.

Mr. Hepburn's car was double parked in front of Carroll's Store and as he stood outside his car waiting for an approaching car driven by Nocl A Reynolds, 40 Victoria Ave. to pass, the Reynolde car slowed to a stop. At the same instant Mr Hepburn decided he'd have time to open his door Mr Reynolds decided Mr Hepburn was waiting for him to pass. As a result of the collision, the door of the Hepburn car was badly dama ged and Mr. Hepburn knocked down

THE POPULAR LASSIE had a stellar supporting cast in Hills of Home at the Roxy this week-end. Edmund Gwenn, Janet Leigh, and Tom Drake are seen with Lassie in a scene from the movie.
