STEWARTTOWN
Happy birthday to Judy Walker, who will be ten year old next Monday, December 6th.
Congratulations to Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Maxwell on the birth of a daughter, Thursday, November 25, a sister for Lorge.
Junior W.A. meeting was held at Mrs. Bally's home last Monday. Judy Walker chose the hymn "Who is on the Lord's Side?" and took charge of the worship service in a very capable manner. Ineka Goussag presented the prayer for the Monday pledge, the medical work among the children of the Diocese of Honan, China. Roll call 13 present. Making quilt blocks was the work in the busy period.
We extend to the families of Lawson and Fisher, the sincere sympathy of the community in the death of Mrs. Walter Lawson Sr. Mrs. Lawson has lived in Stewarttown ever since her marriage and was really a part of the village. She was interested in everything and ready to help with everything. Those who knew her are going to realize a big loss which will affect just about everything in the village. We are glad to have known her but we are missing her sadly. —M.A.B.

SILVERWOOD
INSTITUTE GUESTS OF BALLINAFAD W.I.
On November 23rd, several ladies from the Silverwood Women's Institute spent a day as guests of the Ballinafad W.I.
Mrs. Elton Armstrong of Armistage was the speaker on the Extension Service "How to conduct a meeting," and she was much enjoyed by all. The title of this instruction session is rather misleading, for one expects a rather dry talk on businesslike proceedings, Parliamentary Procedure of meetings, etc. While Mrs. Armstrong's talk was partly on these subjects, it was so interesting that all present were fascinated.
Her subject-matter was diversified by a recipe given an account of her association with a number of ACWV delegates and their tours, a first-hand account of Hurricane Hazel in the Holland Marsh - at-
