

Lt-Col. Barber Retires As Lorne Scots C.O.

Many from Georgetown attended an impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon in Brampton, to witness a change of command parade when Lt.-Col. Sans Charters, Brampton, succeeded Lt.-Col. John R. Barber, Georgetown as commanding officer of the Lorne Scots Regiment.

Brigadier G. E. R. Smith, (R.E., C.D., commander of Central Ontario, area, and acting GOC Central Command, was present to inspect the regiment which assembled in the drill hall of the Ontario Training School. Also in the inspecting party were Col. G. L. Cassidy, DSO, who is commander of 16 Militia Group, comprising the Lorne Scots and the Algonquin Regiment; Lt.-Col. Barber and ADC Lieut. J. G. Miller of the Lorne Scots.

The regimental pipe band, directed by Pipe Major J. Sellers and Drum Major F. McCallum and the military band under the direction of Bandmaster A. H. Perrott played during the inspection and for the march past. Brigadier Smith was complimentary in his remarks about the smartness of the parade, and was particularly impressed with the large turnout of personnel. A parting gift was presented to Col. Barber as he turned over command to Col. Charters after six years in the post.

The regiment later marched through downtown Brampton and the final salute was taken by the retiring colonel. Refreshments were served afterwards in the armory, and visitors, including Sybil Bennett, MP, Stan Hall, MPP and Mrs. Hall, were entertained in the officers' mess.

FARM NEWS

Suggest Minimum Prices For Seed Oats, Barley

A recent announcement by the Seed Marketing and Publicity Committee of the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association suggests the following minimum prices for seed oats and barley for the 1955 seeding.

Oats, Commercial No. 1, Grade, $1.50 per bus. Registered No. 1 Grade $1.75 per bus. Barley, Commercial No. 1 Grade $2.00 per bus. Registered No. 1 Grade $2.50 per bus.

The above prices are based on retail sales of treated seed, bags included, at local shipping points.

Losses to seed grain by rust and rain have been heavy this year over a wide area of the province, particularly in Eastern and Northern Ontario, as well as in Western Canada and the U.S. Supplies are reported as not being too plentiful, and consequently those in this county who will be in need of seed, would be well advised to secure their requirements early in the season.

Hornby Accident Fatal When Train Hits Car

Thomas Featherstone, 82, of Woodward Street, Milton died from head injuries in Milton Private Hospital last Wednesday, five hours after his car was struck by the CPR's crack Dayliner at a level crossing near the county town.

The train, which suffered more than $40,000 damage, was stopped after travelling over a mile and a half from the scene. The self-propelled diesel passenger coach which hauls one other coach, had 70 passengers on board.

Mr. Featherstone's wife died a few years ago and they had no children. He was returning to Milton from Oakville.
