VARIED PROGRAM AT ST. GEORGE'S CONCERT

Edwin Wilson was chairman for the Christmas concert at St. George's Anglican Church on Friday, with superintendent Harvey Dewhurst overseeing the program presented by the various classes.

Mrs. Elmer Fendley's beginners class delighted as usual with their songs while Alfred Hume gave an opening recitation and Kent Robinson the finale. Others who recited included John Wardlaw, Paul Robinson, Jimmy Bowman and Bill Anderson, while two little sisters, Dianna and Elaine Greenwood added a different touch with two dance numbers.

Pupils of Glenora Doherty's class had a recitation "Why" and Fran Price's class a similar one "Santa Claus". Girls taught by Gwen Davis prepared a play "The Fairy Christmas Gifts" and another play "The Night After Christmas" by Janice Bradley's class.

Girls taught by Mr. Jesse Bradford were directed in a play "The Whisker" by Mrs. J. L. Lambert. Another play "The First Noel" by girls of Mrs. Fred Armstrong's class had Glenora Doherty as soloist. Mrs. Ted Arnold's class play was "Eat Your Cake and Have It".

The junior choir sang, accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Dawson, who was pianist for the concert. Carols were sung by the audience and Santa distributed gifts to the beginners and candy to all to end the evening.

Alliance Christmas Party Held in Roxy Theatre

The annual Christmas party for the children of the staff of the Alliance Paper Mills was held on Sunday at the Roxy Theatre. Three movies were shown and then Santa Claus arrived at 3:30. The names were called out and each child received a gift and a bag of candy.

Those on the committee responsible for the success of the party were Helen Armstrong, Pat Day, Anna Spitzer, Robert Footitt, Earl Marchment, Sam Tennant, Grace Warren and Delma Majeury. George Glassford pinch hit for Santa Claus.

—Still not too late to send the Herald as a Christmas gift. We have attractive gift cards.

MR. AND MRS. BULLOCK CLUB PRESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bullock were chosen presidents of the Friendship Club of Glen Williams United Church at last week's meeting. The retiring presidents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hancock were hosts, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Presswood were co-hosts.

Other new officers are: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Norton, Jr., vice presidents; Mr. and Mrs. William McGowan, secretaries; Mr. and Mrs. John Wagstaffe, treasurers.

A penny contest, won by a team headed by Mr. and Mrs. Bullock decided that the losing team would organize a dinner for the first meeting in January. Members enjoyed a half hour of carol singing after the opening ceremonies which included a devotional given by Mr. and Mrs. Presswood and the reciting of favourite nursery rhymes as roll call.

John Wagstaffe acted as Santa for a gift exchange among members. After Rev. A. R. Muir closed the meeting with prayer, the hosts served a cold plate lunch.

Euclre Platers Compete For Prizes of Fowl

Prizes at a Saturday euclre in the Oddfellows Hall were in keeping with the organization which conducted the affair, Georgetown and Halton County Poultry Association.

Altogether three turkeys, two chickens and two ducks were won by those attending and a separate lucky draw accounted for five more fowl prizewinners.

Campbell Sinclair won the turkey door prize and also collected a chicken for his second place standing among the men. Mrs. Robert Lane, Union Street and Garvin Chappell won first prizes of turkeys at cards. Mrs. Syd Robin got a chicken as second high lady. 60 ducks went to Mrs. Thomas Brownridge and Harry Hayward for consolation scores. There were 15 tables of players.

Winners of the lucky draw, on which tickets had been sold for some time were Mrs. Harvey Lundy, turkey; Miss Howard Copland, Walkerton goose; George Eason, two chickens; R. Norton, Acton, chicken; and R. Mogk, 47 Division St., Guelph, chicken.

Monday is Boxing Day and all stores and banks in Georgetown will be closed that day.

To all our friends we wish all the good things that this glorious time of year can bring.
