Switzerland Phone Call Farthest One Reported

Next best thing to being home for Christmas is talking with dear ones by phone. This year, as usual, lines were busy near and far as those who could not be there in person established contact through the miracle of the telephone. The most distant conversation that came to the Herald's attention was when Heinz Hofman spoke to his mother and brother in Switzerland the Sunday before Christmas.

Mr. Hofman, a surveyor employed with W. H. Carr who is in charge of survey work in the Heslop subdivision has been in Canada since last spring. The Peter Pruneau family had guests from Bramford for the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Burond and Mr. and Mrs. Boileau. After mass at Holy Cross R.C. Church Christmas Eve, Mr. Burond made a jovial Santa, and distributed the gifts to the family. A number of friends stopped in to congratulate Patsy Pruneau who was celebrating her 14th birthday that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Kidd were hosts to the Tennant family Christmas Day, those present including her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tennant, Mr. and Mrs. William Garbutt, Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, Streetsville, and Mr. Russell Firestone, Toronto, as well as Mr. Clifford Butler, Toronto, who was visiting his daughter Mary. Sunday the Garbuts entertained the same group, who were joined by Pte. and Mrs. Leonard Tennant and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pearce and Tommy, of Buffalo, N.Y. and Mr. and Mrs. Don Seddon, Toronto. Pte. Leonard Tennant is now stationed with the Royal Canadian Regiment in London, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Murslock, Toronto were Christmas guests with Rev. and Mrs. Morgan McFarlane. Their daughter Margaret had a guest from Hespeler, Sheila Smith with her for a few days this week.

Mrs. Matt Lawr had an unexpected trip to Guelph and Toronto on Christmas Eve, when her eye, which was operated on last year, gave further trouble. Taken first to Guelph, she was transferred to St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto for another operation.

Mrs. Henry Isley had the misfortune to fall at her home and break her wrist. Mrs. Charles Watson, who has been in hospital in Guelph with a broken hip was able to sit up for a while on Christmas Day.

J. E. Peterkin, who underwent an operation in Toronto General Hospital a few weeks ago, returned home the day before Christmas. Mrs. Ventch, who has been working as a stenographer at Scott Motors, is recuperating at home from a broken ankle suffered in a fall on the ice.

Will Hillis still househunting after his return to town as a Prudential Insurance agent, went to Port Arthur to be with his wife and children for Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gudgeon, Jackie and Ann spent the day in Hamilton with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gudgeon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell and family were in Williams with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jewell. Mr. and Mrs. Armand Swackhamer and Jimmy were here from Ottawa to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Swackhamer and her sister, Miss Hilda Erwin. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fiebig and family went to North Bay to spend Christmas day with her mother Mrs. D. Cassidy and his father, Mr. W. G. Fiebig.
