INSTITUTE SPONORS SATURDAY EUCBRE

A Happy Birthday to Kenneth Hodge, who will be nine years old this coming Friday, January 14th. The good wishes of all go to Mrs. Johnston for a happy birthday on Tuesday the 18th. Mrs. Johnston will be 64. A happy birthday to Gretha Koeslag who will be 12 years on Tuesday, January 18th. We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. Corley had an accident and was thrown from a truck and received injury to his back. We hope he will soon recover.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Nurse, and to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham in the passing away of their daughter and granddaughter Valerie Nurse.

The Women's Institute euchre was held Saturday night in Stewarttown Community Hall. The winners were: ladies: Mrs. S. Robin, Georgetown, 1st; Mrs. Matthews, Georgetown, 2nd; gentlemen: Cam Sinclair 1st; John Cunningham, Hornby, 2nd.

The Women's Institute annual meeting last week was postponed because of icy roads and will be this Thursday at Mrs. Cecil Smith's home.

Hyde, Harlow Named Fire Department Heads

Top officials of Georgetown Fire Department were re-elected when the annual meeting was held Sunday afternoon in the fire hall auditorium.

William Hyde and Jack Harlow continue for another year as chief and deputy.

Clarence Spence was re-elected secretary and Jack Davidson is the new treasurer. Other elected officials include Bob Bonfield, Captain No. 1; Alex Ritchie, Captain No. 2; Jim Valentine, Lieutenant No. 1; David Williams, Lieutenant No. 2; Jack Kerr, hook and ladder captain; William Ritchie, town truck driver; Charles Laws, panel truck driver; Herb Roshier, township truck driver. Charles Tyler was appointed parade marshal.

Mayor Jack Armstrong, who acted as chairman for the election, complimented the department on their fine cooperation with town council during the year, and also spoke of the close harmony which exists between the town and the portion of Esqueping Township which is served under the fire area system.

He spoke particularly about the panel truck which was bought and paid for through the efforts of the firemen themselves, without a penny being received from the public treasury.

Chief William Hyde said fire loss in 1954 had been kept at a minimum and was particularly proud of the attendance record of firemen at meetings and at fire calls.

A former chief, Harry Savings, and Councillor Irwin Noble, fire chairman, were scrutineers for the election. Mr. Savings later spoke briefly as Old Reeve Wilfrid Bird of Esqueping.

Coloured movies shown by Don Barrager included pictures of the coronation parade, a mutual aid demonstra-

Plans for Organizing Juvenile Orange Lodge

A juvenile Orange lodge is being organized at Stewarttown, with L.O.L. 68 the sponsoring organization.

Girls and boys ages 8 to 16 will be eligible to join the group. Plans were outlined at last week's meeting, which was addressed by Robert Drury, juvenile organizer for the Orange Association.

Visitors attended the meeting from Milton, Georgetown, Acton, Port Credit and Clarkson.

tion in Milton, the Merritton convention and the Christmas party for children of members.

Council members from town and township were guests at the meeting which ended with a buffet supper.
