

Mrs. Alexander Fasken Former Town Resident

Mrs. Alexander Fasken, 64, who died in New Hamburg last week was a former Georgetown resident, coming here ten years ago when her son-in-law, the late Vern Cavanagh was appointed CNR station agent. The former Jane Angell, she was born in Elora. Her husband died two years after their marriage, and she has made her home with the Cavanaghs since they were married, living in Aylton, Sebringville, New Hamburg and Georgetown. The two ladies left town two years ago, returning to New Hamburg to live.

Mrs. Fasken was quite active in ladies' groups of St. John's United Church in town, and also in the Women's Institute. She was a life member of the Women's Missionary Society of the church, and also belonged to the W.A. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Vern Cavanagh in New Hamburg, a brother Hurk Angell and sister Mrs. John Larman of Elora. Following the funeral service in New Hamburg on Sunday, interment was made in Elora Cemetery.

Mello Macs Draw Large Dance Crowd

What is hoped to be the first in a series of "name" attractions at the Saturday night dances in the Rose Room, brought out an extra large crowd last week to hear the Mello Macs. The Toronto quartette, three men and a girl, have been getting lots of publicity since winning the Arthur Goldfrey Talent Scouts contest. More important, they are also being booked for a series of night club appearances in the States, as well as appearances on TV and radio shows in Toronto.

Harvey Lusty Speaker Royal Scarlet Elections

Harvey Lusty, Master of LOL 68, Stewarttown, was speaker at a recent meeting of Hornby District Royal Scarlet Chapter, when new officers were elected by this Orange Lodge. Mr. Lusty talked on the motto, equal rights to all—special privileges to none, his topic being one school, one flag, God Save the Queen and no surrender. New lodge officers are: Commander, R. A. Brownridge, Milton; Deputy, James Hoey, Oakville; Chaplain, Thomas Warnes, Georgetown; Scribe and treasurer, Ernie Rawson, Georgetown; Marshal, Harvey Lusty, Stewarttown; Lecturers, J. E. Wilson, Lew Sampson, Hornby; Conductors, J. Fuller, Oakville, J. Stokes, Cooksville; Herald, George Bailey, Hornby.

On Saturday they featured "Zing Went the Strings of my Heart" the number which brought them fame on the Godfrey show, and sang a medley of Glenn Miller tunes as another part of their act. The Modern Aires, who sponsored their appearance were well pleased with the evening, and will be endeavoring to have other visiting performers at future dances.

Seek Two More Public School Teachers Here

At their meeting last Wednesday members of the public school board decided that it would be necessary to hire at least one more teacher and possibly two, to keep up with the growing enrolment in local schools. A new teacher will be added to the Wrigglesworth staff and if enrolment continues to increase at Chapel Street school another teacher may join the staff there this spring. Ray Salter was elected by the members for another term as chairman. Serving on the property committee are Harry Shortill, Edwin Wilson and Robert Stewardson, with Stan Finlay and Cecil McNamara composing the finance committee. James F. Evans and P. B. Harrison continue as secretary and treasurer and M. J. Moyer was re-engaged as attendance officer. Fred Masterman has been reappointed to North Halton High School district board, Georgetown having this extra appointment because of the largest public school enrolment. Harry Adams was reappointed to a three-year term on the public library board.

Dinner, Annual Election St. John Sunday School

The annual meeting of the Executive of St. John's United Church Sunday School was held in the ladies parlour of the church on Monday, January 10th. The ever faithful W.A. served dinner for the meeting as an expression of their appreciation of the works of the executive body of the school. Reports from various departments gave an indication of the progress made in the work of the school during the past year. Receipts for the year for all purposes showed a total of $1677, an increase of $300 over the previous year. Average attendance for the year was 183 as against 173 for 1953. Fifteen members of the school were received into full membership of the church as against six in the previous year.

At the close of the brief business meeting all officers were re-elected for another year. It was decided to hold a general meeting in the near future at which full discussion on the various problems will take place. The members joined with the Young People's group to enjoy a film strip under the title "The Growing Teacher". This inspiring film depicted the problems of a young teacher and how she overcame them.

The twenty teachers of the school are: Mrs. Chester DeForest, Miss Floella Alcott, Miss Sue Crabtree, Miss Ann Hyde, Miss Gail King, Mrs. Jack Bailey, Miss Fran Deans, Mrs. Gordon King, Miss Barbara Alcott, Mrs. Jack Watson, Mrs. Ernest Forgrave, Mrs. Robert Souther, Mrs. Robert Darou, Miss Leanne Darou, Mr. Cecil McNamara, Mr. Frank Whitmee, Mr. Jack Runham, Mr. Graham Farnell, Mr. Wm. Kinrade, Mr. Alan Prouse.

Officers for 1955 are: Secretary, Miss Sandra Scott, Treasurer, Mrs. Claude Kentner, Duplex Envelope Sec'y, Miss Isabel Dobson, Assistants Envelope Sec'y, Miss Karen Scott, Mrs. George Dobson, Conveyor of Equipment and Supplies, Mr. Vern McCumber, Projectionists, Douglas Wrigglesworth, Thomas Forgrave; Pianist, Miss Pat Willson, Missionary Supt., Mrs. Ruth Wrigglesworth; General Supts., Ernest Forgrave, Ernest Alcott, Session Representatives to Sunday School Board, Mr. George Ward, Mr. Reg Broomhead, Minister of the Church and Counsellor to Sunday School Executive, Rev. Morgan McFarlane, B.A.
