Legion Notes Mrs. Gordon Kidney Again
IN CASE YOU DON'T KNOW IT, Heads Church WMS

there's another oyster night scheduled for next meeting night, Thursday January 27th, in the Legion Auditorium. The boys have been working hard on this and have already ordered an ample supply of oysters. Last time, as you all know, the number of members who turned out for this affair were far beyond our wildest expectations, and as a result there were not too many oysters. However, this time twice the quantity has been ordered, promising a real night for sea-food lovers. As anyone attending will recall, that was possibly the best evening the Legion had ever enjoyed, so how about every member turning out to enjoy this one as well as being on hand for the last regular monthly meeting of the year.

Already the boys are talking of it, so you better come early for what can well be the biggest evening of the year!

Entertainment is being arranged for and it is hoped to have a real interesting "do". All we need is every member's presence, so how's about it!

A week Sunday is the bid day for the election of officers, so let's see a real attendance. Surely the least you can do for your branch is have a say in who is to guide it for the next year.

The ladies of the WA hold their election of officers tomorrow (Thursday) night in the Legion Hall.

The slate of officers for 1955 is as follows:
President — Arthur Herbert
Vice President — Jim Murphy
Secretary — Bob Muir
Treasurer — Perc Clark
Executive — Alex Taylor, Tom Herbert
Sick Convener — Mrs. T. Grieve
Entertainment — Alex Taylor.

Past President Wm Broughton expressed his pleasure at heading the organization in the past and hoped the Section would be very successful in the future.

A hearty vote of thanks was then moved to Comrade Charlie Day and Mrs. Day for the use of their home.

RE-ELECT TOM WARNES AS CHOIR PRESIDENT

Meeting after choir practice on Thursday, members of St. George's Anglican choir re-elected Thomas Warnes president and chose other officers for the year.

Mrs. Fred Nelson is secretary-treasurer, Joan Harrison, librarian, Sandra Bradley and Jean Engleby, assistant librarians; Mrs. Douglas Marshall, gown matron.

Annual of Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of St. John's United Church was held in the church-parlour Tuesday, January 11th at three o'clock.

Mrs. Gordon Kidney, president, was in the chair. She opened the meeting with a suitable quotation for the New Year. The Roll Call was answered by each one repeating a verse on the word "Glory". Mrs. Kidney read Romans 12. She also read a quotation, speaking of Christmas not being past and gone but as a stream of love, goodwill and kindness flowing on throughout the year. She read a story called "Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh," written by Glenn Clark, a reverie on his wife Louise, who had died a short time before, whose life was like a fragrance of those lovely things which she practised in her daily life and shared with her husband.

Reports were then given by the various conveners of committees and officers. Mrs. Hayes moved that the list of officers and conveners be accepted. Mrs. Nielsen seconded the motion.

At the end of the meeting, Mrs. Hayes spoke some words of appreciation of Mrs. Kidney agreeing to take on the president's office for 1955 and of the effort and sacrifice she had put into the work in that office in 1954.

Sunday School Shows Increase in Attendance

Mr and Mrs Wilfred Mino were hosts to Sunday School teachers of St. George's Anglican Church when they had their monthly meeting last Tuesday evening.

Treasurer Edwin Wilson reported an increase in attendance and collections last year. It was agreed to give $75 to the church building fund. It was also decided that the Sunday School purchase two kindergarten tables for the beginners' department.

It was the opinion that the school build up their library of 2x2 slides, and a list of hymns was passed around, each teacher agreeing to choose their favourite hymn and buy it for the school.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Mino and Lynda served lunch. Mr. Ernie Barnes expressed the thanks of those present to the hosts for their hospitality.

Officers and teachers present were: HENRY Dewhurst, superintendent, Mrs. Elmer Fenley, recording secretary, Edwin Wilson, treasurer, Jesse Bradford, Wilfred Mino, Mrs. Ted Arnold, Mr and Mrs Ernie Barnes, Trevor Lloyd, Gwen Davis and Glenna Doherty.

Milton Barber Was Prominent Oddfellow

Andrew Elliott, 51, Milton Barber and prominent Oddfellow, died at his home there on January 10th.

A Past Noble Grand of Milton Lodge No. 82, he served as warden of Credit District No. 33 for a short time until illness forced him to resign this office. Funeral service was held in Milton Presbyterian Church on Wednesday and interment was in Milton Cemetery.

An Oddfellows service was conducted at the graveside by Noble Grand James McClennan of Milton and other officers. Some thirty Oddfellows attended the service, including from Georgetown Joe Hall, Sr., Les Dickenson, Harvey Dewhurst, Fred Armstrong and W. O. Brownridge.
