DEATHS

BLYTH - MARLOW — We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from our kind friends during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear mother. We especially thank the Kabeck Lodge and our neighbours and also Rev. Slinn for his words of comfort. — Horace and George Blyth, Elsie Gibbs and Phyllis Bell.

GOLLOP, George E. — Suddenly at Washington, D.C. Saturday, January 29th, 1955, George E. Gollop, beloved husband of Nancy Brooks of Montreal and loved son of W. G. Gollop, Norval. In his 67th year. Funeral services were held in Montreal on Tuesday and in Norval this afternoon at the home of Miss Prairie Maguire. Interment in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval.

CARDS OF THANKS

CURTIS — I wish to thank all my friends for their many kindnesses while I was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

DAY — I wish to thank neighbours and other friends for their cards and gifts of fruit and flowers sent while I was a patient in Guelph General Hospital. — Charlene Day.

SOPER — In the midst of our sorrow we wish to express heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, friends and neighbours for kindness and sympathy shown us in the loss of a beloved husband and father, Thomas H. Soper. We especially thank Rev. Morgan McFarlane for his consoling words, all the donors of the many beautiful floral offerings, also the McClure Funeral Home, Georgetown, for their kind, efficient management of the service. — Mrs. Thomas Soper and family.

TUCKER — I would like to thank all my friends who so kindly remembered me with fruit, cards and flowers while I was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital and since returning home. — Dorothy Tucker.

—Public school teachers from Milton and Georgetown were guests of the Acton staff at a meeting in Acton last week. There was a helpful demonstration on physical training.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Fern MacGillivray, is vacationing in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. MacGillivray, Mountainview Road.

Little Elspeth Raffan has been visiting in town with Mr. and Mrs. John Inglis, Maple Avenue while her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Raffan of Guelph are away on a trip to New Orleans.

Gloria Sinclair, who is attending Teachers Training College in Hamilton, was a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Costigan of John Street last week when she was teaching public school in Acton.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Sinclair left by train yesterday to spend a month or more in the south. They will be at the Tarrymore in St. Petersburg for the next four weeks and also intend to visit with Mrs. R. E. English who is at Lakeworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McNabb celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary on Thursday. Their family entertained with a small dinner party on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb. Mr. and Mrs. Donald McNabb, Windsor, visited with them for the weekend. Saturday was also the third birthday of Lois Albin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb.

Visitors last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kovacs, 31 Byron St. were Ronald Ellises of Leaside, engineering student at the University of Toronto, and their niece Miss Ruth Anderson, a graduate of Toronto University, who flew from Winnipeg where she is with Deer Lodge Hospital. Ruth's sister Claire, now of Vancouver, was a gold medalist last June when she graduated from the University of Manitoba. Their other sister Catherine, also of Vancouver, graduated two years ago from Ryerson Institute, Toronto.

BUSY BEES DISCUSS IMPROVING BAZAAR

The January meeting of the Busy Bees Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Alfred Allen. Roll Call was "the radio program I consider most educational." Thought for the day was given by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Roy Lindsay gave a paper on the activities of Florence Reynolds. A message from the provincial president, was read and the rest of the meeting was taken up with discussions on the ways and means to improve the annual bazaar. The hostess, with her helpers, served lunch and a pleasant time over the tea cups closed the meeting.
