TERRA COTTA

RETIRED RAILWAYMAN INSTITUTE SPEAKER

P. W. Raines who moved to Georgetown recently after retiring from service with Canadian Pacific Railways was the speaker at the February meeting of Terra Cotta Women's Institute.

Mr. Raines, who is the father of Mrs. Leslie Young of this district, was supervisor of rules for the company, and gave a talk on railways, outlining some of his duties in that capacity.

Mrs. Lloyd Crichton was hostess with Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie, Mrs. C. Lyons and Mrs. H. Puckering as assistants. Members answered roll call with an interesting fact about a Canadian product.

Twenty-five dollars was voted to the W.I. Ceylon project. Mrs. Fraser MacDonald gave the motto: Consider the turtle, he doesn't make any progress until he sticks his neck out.

Mrs. William Ostrander conducted a contest on fabrics and Mrs. George Fraser played a piano solo. Miss Castle of Megdowville will speak on gardening at the next meeting, which has been changed to March 9th and will be held at Mrs. Fraser MacDonald's home.
