

Ballet and tap dancing classes may be organized by the Home and School Association if enough public school pupils are interested.

A survey is being made at present and if enough youngsters sign up a Brampton lady will establish classes locally.

NORVAL

Former Members Are Guests of Institute

The Norval Women's Institute met at the home of Miss Patricia Maguire last week. Donations were made to the music festival, the Girl Guides and the Folk School. It was also agreed to give a flag and stand for the hall of the new school.

All old members of the Institute were invited to this meeting and when business had been attended to, court whist was played. Mrs. Nels Robinson won first prize, Mrs. Harold Small second and the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Elmer Patterson. Following this a special party lunch of angel cake and ice cream was served.

BALLINAFAD

Student from India Church Guest Speaker

Mr. John Halls of Indore, India, was guest speaker at the church service Sunday morning. Mr. Halls is a student at Emmanuel College and is returning to India at the end of the term.

An evening service was also held when a film "The Village of the Poor" was shown by Mr. Russ after which Mr. Halls answered many interesting questions on his native country. He is a second generation Christian and has a very pleasing personality.

Mrs. E. Peters of Georgetown was a Sunday visitor with the Kirkwoods. The "Mix-Maidens" Girls Club are busy practicing a skill for Achievement Day which will be held in Milton on the 10th.

Orange Lodge Euchre Held at Stewarttown

The building committee of Loyal Orange Lodge 68 held another successful euchre party and dance in the community hall at Stewarttown on Friday.

Mrs. Jim Cunningham, Mrs. W. R. Norton and Mrs. Joe Norton won the ladies' prizes and Jack Cain, James Andrews and Frank Peacock, Milton.

During the evening, draws were made for a number of prizes on which lucky draw tickets had been sold. A Westinghouse mantle radio, donated by Goodlet's Hardware was won by Robert Copland. Other prize-winners included Del Tubman, Milton, electric kettle; Roy Bradley, of Milton, electric iron; Mrs. A. N. Carter, clothes hamper; P. Poulson, electric clock; Joy Laird, table lamp; Mrs. Joe Standish, card table; and "Chic" Askin, one dozen Dale roses.

George McClure Plays In West Point Game

Hockey experience gained in the Georgetown minor leagues and with the juvenile team which won an Ontario championship a few years ago, has gained George McClure a place on the team at Royal Military College.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McClure flew to New York last week end to attend the annual game with West Point. George, whose hockey activities were curtailed last year by a hand injury, played right wing, and the RMD boys won the game.

The McClures were guests of former Georgetowners Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goring who live in Richmond Hill, Long Island. They lived here some fifteen years ago when Mr. Goring was accountant at the Bank of Montreal.

Confer Second Degree At Oddfellows Meeting

Two special events have taken place at the Oddfellows Hall in recent weeks.

Saturday, visitors and candidates were present from several lodges to witness the second degree ceremony of Valley City lodge confer this degree.

The visitors from the Dundas lodge conferred this degree in an excellent manner and earned the praise of all those attending for their good work. Visitors were here from Dundas, Hamilton, Alton, Milton, Dundalk and Orangeville.

A roast beef dinner followed lodge, served by a committee headed by chief cooks Harold Crawford and August Spitzer.

A few weeks ago, Orion lodge held its annual venison stew dinner. As usual the dinner was under the capable direction of Bill Ritchie and Harry Savings, their chief cook Orval Rayner and his kitchen helpers.

Sixty guests attended. Billy Arnott and Co entertainers from Toronto provided the program afterwards, with their sleight-of-hand tricks and other magician's stunts.

WILL ENTER QUILT IN SALADA CONTEST

The regular meeting of the Georgetown Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Williamson on Charles Street, on March 2nd.

The meeting opened with the Institute ode and prayer and was followed by the roll call which was a fact about the Royal family Mrs. Fred Armstrong gave the motto "To be able to speak several languages is valuable but the ability to keep one's mouth shut in one language is priceless."

Five dollars was voted to the music festival with Mrs. R. T. Paul being chosen as the representative Mrs. E. K. Robinson, Mrs. Seward Wilson and Mrs. Annie Ballantine were chosen to make a hooked rug and enter it in the contest being sponsored by the Salada Tea Company in Ontario. It was agreed that the April meeting would take the form of a pot luck supper.

Following the business portion of the meeting, Mrs. Walter T. Evans showed coloured pictures she had taken of the Canadian Rockies.
