MR. AND MRS. CORDARO PLAN EUROPEAN TOUR

A local couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Cordaro, are planning a wonderful three month European tour this summer.

They will sail July 17th and the trip will have a triple purpose, for besides attending the international assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in several cities, they will be visiting Mrs. Cordaro's homeland, England, and her husband's relatives in Italy.

The tour will take them to England, France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Sicily, Germany, Switzerland, and then they plan to visit the Holy Land. They will sail home from Naples in October.

They plan to take movies in the various places visited and will edit these for local showing when they return. Mrs. Cordaro, who has often contributed items to the Herald, has also promised to write a series of letters for the paper about their trip, to keep her friends in touch with their activities while abroad.

GOLDHAM, SCHEBZL STAR

Bob Goldham picked up one assist when Detroit ousted Toronto Maple Leafs in the NHL semi-finals last p.m.

Back in uniform, after missing a few games with a toe injury, Joe Schertzl scored a goal for Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen, playing last night in Sault Ste. Marie. It wasn't enough to avoid a 5-3 loss to put Kitchener behind 3 to 2 in game.
