Elmira Celebration for Wedding Couple of 1905

A golden wedding anniversary celebration which holds local interest, took place in Elmira on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Chapar Stumpf received congratulations from friends and relatives at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf were married at St. George's, Georgetown, fifty years ago, by Rev. D. A. MacDonald. Mrs. Stumpf was the former Mary Lake, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lake of Georgetown. A unique and happy feature of the celebration was that all the wedding attendants were able to be present at the reception held during the afternoon and evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt (formerly Minnie Armstrong) and Mrs. A. H. Feller (formerly Lucy Lake, and sister of the bride) who was junior bridesmaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf operated a bakery and confectionery business in Elmira for 37 years before their retirement in 1940. At the time of their marriage, the groom was apprenticed to the late Lewis Kennedy in Georgetown. Shortly afterwards they moved to Rockwood for a few months and then bought a farm just outside Elmira. They farmed a few years before buying the bakery business in town. Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf both enjoy good health and in the summer take great pleasure from a large garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf's two daughters, Marjorie, Mrs. Ken Atkinson, Elmira and Lucy, Mrs. James Mitchell, Elmira assisted the wedding party in greeting the guests. There are four grandchildren, Ronald and Paul Mitchell, and Mary and George Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Feller, Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blech and Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson attended the reception on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Feller and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt were also guests at a dinner held at the Steadick Hotel in Elmira, Monday evening to honour Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf.

Streetsville Farmer Was Old Papermill Employee

A former Glen Williams resident was buried Thursday in Glen Williams Cemetery following funeral services in Brantford for Thomas Townley Brocklebank, 67. He died in Peal Memorial Hospital on April 4th after two years of ill health, the last two months bedfast at his home and in hospital.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Brocklebank, he was born on the 5th Line, Toronto Township near Streetsville, near the farm where he had lived since 1924. He received his schooling at Whalesy's Corners. After his marriage to Elizabeth Moody they lived in Glen Williams for ten years while he was employed in Georgetown as stationary engineer at the old "lower mill" of Provincial Paper Ltd. then in Terra Cotta where he was employed at the Logan brick plant.

His family had been in Canada for generations. His great-grandfather brought the first barley seed into this country and his great-grandfather imported the first binder from England.

His wife and a family of six daughters and four sons survive; Mrs. Elva Palmer and Mrs. Irene Casley, Georgetown, Mrs. N. Russell (Louise), Lloyd, Mervin and Eva of Streetsville, Townley of Milton, Mrs. I. Smith (Erma) of Lakewood; Mrs. D. Scott (Dora) of Weston; and Glover of Holstein. He also leaves two brothers, Ernest of Streetsville and George, of Toronto, and an elderly aunt, Miss Annie Brocklebank of Milton.

Rev. L. G. Stapleton conducted the funeral service. Pallbearers were Bruce Nixon, Frank Hill, Jack Beatrice and three nephews, Rev. Stuart, and Murray Moody.

ASHGROVE

SALUTE TO SPRING

April, April, thou art here; Smiles and tearful month of year. When you open your buds and flowers Bestow your sunshine, drop your showers.

Waft the south wind With balmy hours; Life's best years rolled in one. New month, April, you are fun This lovely spring-like weather we have had for the Easter week-end, reminds us that winter is gone. The spring has come and the song of the frog is heard in the land aning with that comes spring housecleaning.

A beautiful Easter service was held in our church on Sunday morning. Vases of daffodils, an Easter Lily and potted plants adorned the front tables. The music by the choir and the sermon by Mr. Williams all fitted in with Easter. Visitors at this service were Rev. B. Eyre of Uxbridge and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eyre of Norval. Mrs. George Kennedy of Milton and Miss Luie Reed of Toronto.

Congratulations to our school children who did so well at the music festival last week, special mention to Nancy Hunter and Sandra Carney for their solos. Good lucks, girls, when you go to the finals in Milton.

An Ashgrove couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Belloddy, were pleasantly surprised on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary when Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dick were hosts to a group of some thirty friends at a social evening. The guests of honour were presented with a magazine table and were asked to cut a handsome wedding cake, with Mr. Belloddy expressing thanks for himself and his wife for the lovely evening. Crockinole was played with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell, Mrs. Thomas Giffert and David Giffert winning prizes.

Two Morning Services Fill St. John's Church

Growth of Georgetown and of the St. John's United Church congregation was reflected in the Easter Sunday services when as an experiment, there were two full church services at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

The church was well filled for the earlier service, with an overflow attendance at the regular time, and another capacity congregation at the evening worship.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane concluded a series of sermons on "Calvary, the Crucible of Character" in which he had reviewed the various traits of character brought out in the Easter message. Victory was the theme of this service, which had been preceded by such subjects as stubbornness, helpfulness, courage, criticism and forgiveness.

Mrs. Howard Wigglesworth was soloist at 9:30 and Mrs. Gordon Kidney at 11 a.m. Otherwise, the two services were the same, with a full choir in attendance each time.

The junior choir sang an anthem in the evening and the Easter story was recited by three young lads, Bob McCumber, Wesley Darou and Murdoch McFarlane.

There was a special service in the church on Good Friday evening, also, when Mr. McFarlane preached on "The Voice of the Cross." The high school choir conducted by Kenneth R. Harrison, ARCT, took part in the service, singing Stainer's "God So Loved the World" and Franck's "Luther, All Merciful."

STEWARTTOWN

SCHOOL CHOIR WILL COMPETE AT MILTON

Congratulations to our school choir and to their music teacher Mr. Crawford Douglas for the splendid job in winning honours at the choir festival in Georgetown last week. We hope you will do equally well at the county festival in Milton. Also to Susan and Chris Canham, coming 1st in the vocal duet, also Susan first in girls' solo and Chris, first in boys' solo and to all the boys and girls there for the pleasure they gave.

Visitors for Easter Sunday were Miss May Patterson of Toronto at Mr. and Mrs. Grants.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baily and Paul at Mrs. Baily's.

With Mrs. Standish and at church were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Standish, Edward, Richard, Rosemary and Roderick, and Miss Frances Jenkinson, all of Thorold.

The April Women's Institute meeting will be held at Mrs. Baily's home Wednesday evening, April 10th. This will be the annual meeting.

Mackenzie News

Dreams do come true sometimes, as is proved by the glorious Easter weather we had.

For distinctive colours, try our Color-ette Over-awl paint. We have it in flat, semi-gloss, gloss and rubber base for inside and outside. Our white is non-yellowing and for flat costs $2.25 per quart, or $7.25 per gallon and for semi-gloss or gloss it is $2.60 per quart or $9.15 per gallon. Outside white is $2.40 per quart or $7.65 per gallon. Swan outside white is $3.95 per gallon.

We'll soon be fishing, golfing, playing ball or leading the outdoor life.
