Bishop Officiates, Induction Of Rev. Kenneth Richardson

On Wednesday, Rt. Rev. Walter Bagnall, Anglican bishop of Niagara officiated at the institution and induction of Rev. Kenneth Richardson, as the 22nd rector of St. George's Church, Georgetown and St. Alban's Glen Williams.

The bishop was assisted at this impressive ceremony in the Georgetown church by Canon E. Rigby of the Niagara church house, and Archdeacon A. C. Mackintosh, Hamilton, who led the new rector to the various parts of the church where admonitions were read. The archdeacon acted as rector for several months last fall after Archdeacon Thompson's retirement. Canon F. C. Jackson, Oakville, who is rural dean read the licence.

Dr. A. H. O'Neil, who was principal of Huron College, London, when Mr. Richardson was a student, and who is now secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society preached the sermon. Dr. O'Neil spoke of how it is possible for church people to disagree on religious matters, just as they do in secular, yet not let this influence them in working together for a higher purpose. He compared the church to a family, where arguments often arise, but there is still harmony and happiness in the overall picture.

The keys of the parish were presented by churchwardens Edwin Wilson and Harry Savings for St. George's and Jack Lucas and Joseph Eason for St. Alban's.

Music for the service was arranged by the choirmaster Bruce Harding and organist Mrs. W. F. Bradley.

A reception was held in the auditorium of Wrigglesworth School, with members of St. George's W.A., Daughters of the Church and St. Alban's Guild serving refreshments. The tables were adorned tastefully with spring flowers. Bishop Bagnall spoke briefly during the social time and the new rector and Mrs. Richardson received congratulations from friends from all parts of the diocese. Honoured guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richardson, Pen-tang.

Clergy and laymen from all parts of Niagara diocese attended the ceremony and visitors from Toronto and Huron diocese were also present. Rev. Alex Calder, Rev. Alfred Barker and Rev. Morgan McFarlane represented three local churches. Anglican clergy include Canon F. Waser, Dunnville, minister here several years ago; Rev. Maxwell Parker, director of the Anglican publishing house, Toronto; Canon A. H. Davis, field secretary of the missionary society; Rev. G. G. Russell, Stratford; Rev. J. T. M. Swan, Galt; Rev. Fred Pierce, Hamilton; Bishop's Chaplain; Canon S. Kirk, Guelph; Canon A. T. P. Holmes, Niagara Falls; Rev. Evan Jones, Acton; Rev. D. C. Brown, Elora; Rev. H. Thomason, St. Luke's, Hamilton; Rev. A. Tooke, Guelph; Rev. C. Raymond, Mt. Forest; Rev. J. E. Maxwell, Norval.

Junior Farmers' Hold Oakville "At Home"

It is Friday evening or perhaps I should say Saturday morning, and I have just returned from the Halton Juniors annual At Home, in the Oakville High School, where Mrs. White-lock and I, along with Warden Robert Shannon, Reeve A. R. Service, and Miss Marion Service, had the honour of acting as patrons and patronesses for the gala event.

While the attendance was lower than normal, it was nevertheless, in many respects, the most enjoyable At Home yet held by Halton Juniors. The president John W. Pickett and his various committee members had everything working smoothly, and there seemed to be just a little more informality about the event which added to the general enjoyment. The refreshments were ably handled by the Juniors themselves and while it meant more work for those on the committee, certainly it was a great improvement over former years.

Guests were in attendance from the counties of York, Peel, Wentworth, Halton, Norfolk and Brant counties. As usual the young ladies in their party dresses were a pleasure to behold and the young men — well, they too were easy to look upon, and aside from that, the entire group were a real credit to the County of Halton. Certainly those who stayed home because of the change in location missed the best party ever held by the Halton Juniors.

THEATRE PARTY, DINNER FOR LADY CURLERS

Monday, a group of twenty members of Georgetown Ladies Curling Club had an outing in Toronto. The group had dinner at the Nanking, then went to the Royal Alexandra Theatre to see the musical show "Guys and Dolls."

Included in the party were: Mrs. Wray Bessey, Margery Mackenzie, Mrs. Jack Hart, Mrs. Bob Reeve, Mrs. Stan Finlay, Mrs. Bill McNally, Mrs. Harold Hutchinson, Mrs. Dick Licala, Mrs. Harold McClure, Mrs. Don Barrager, Mrs. Ernie Curry, Mrs. Sam Mackenzie, Jean Mackenzie, Dorothy Parkinson, Mrs. Jack McGibbon, Mrs. Norman Devereaux, Mrs. Harold Wheeler, Jean Ruddell, Lois Kidd,

NITRO CULTURES IN STRONG DEMAND

The difficulty in securing catches of small seeds, coupled with the high cost of alfalfa and red clover, has resulted in an unusually strong demand for legume cultures, at the Milton office of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

For the past three years, these cultures which are prepared by the Bacteriology Department at the Ontario Agricultural College, have been in powder form, which is a much more convenient form to use than in former years. Those sowing legumes on fields which have not grown the particular crop in recent years, would be well advised to take advantage of this cheap insurance for a good catch. Twenty-five cents is the very nominal price for each culture, which is sufficient to enucleate two bushels of alfalfa or clover seed.

Cancer, credited with 17,710 deaths, killed nearly four times as many Canadians in 1963 as all other diseases combined.
