

Rockwood Native Managed Horse Farm in Quebec

William Gordon (Tim) Nelson, 42, who was buried last Thursday in Rockwood Cemetery, had been a farmer near there for most of his life. Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Nelson, he operated the family farm in Eramosa a mile from the village until six years ago when he took a position in St. Andrew's East, Que. There he was manager of a farm owned by L. T. Potter, whose hunter horses are well-known in the show ring. Mr. Nelson became ill last fall and had to give up his position. He returned to Ontario and spent the first two months of this year in town with his brother, Norton Nelson. He died in Guelph General Hospital on May 2nd. He leaves his wife Margaret, Ingle and a young family of four, Carol, Clifford, Billy and Leslie, and his only brother, Norton. Rev. Morgan McFarlane, Georgetown assisted Rev. J. A. Ditts in conducting the funeral service at the Rumley Funeral Home, Acton. Pallbearers were all former neighbours, Charles McNabb, Harvey Bayne, Geo. Wingate, Fred Moore, Tom and Ed Maude.

Scout Concert Raises Summer Camp Funds

With local musicians assisting, and cubs and scouts putting on demonstrations, the Scout and Cub concert had a good audience in St. John's Church Hall Thursday. The ladies auxiliary sponsors this annual event to raise funds to help send the boys to summer camp, and their efforts were rewarded with a large advance ticket sale and a good attendance at the concert.

"Davy Crockett" bobbed up in two places in the program, first as part of a group of songs and recitations by the Cubs, directed by Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth, and again as one of the numbers by guitarists Don Srdon and Bill Whitney, the latter vocalizing. They were later joined by Doug Mills with his electric guitar.

Vocalist Sandra Scott, Danny Golden playing the accordion and George Glassford and his doll Sambo, who danced to Mrs. Glassford's piano music were also features of the program.

Bob Tracey was in charge of a first aid demonstration by scouts, with artificial respiration and different types of bandaging shown.

Little Barbara Ann Scott and Joey Gill, pupils of a lady who will be teaching ballet and tap dancing classes in town next fall, added interest to the program with their tap routines.

Mrs. Frank Seddon presented prizes to boys who had sold the most tickets. Steven Saxe, Don McFarlane, David Barraker and Larry Hailey, Rev. Morgan McFarlane acted as chairman for the evening.
