Farm Women's Needs Makes Panel Discussion

"What farm women need most" as a panel discussion, was an interesting feature of the Terra Cotta Women's Institute meeting held on Monday night at the home of Mrs. Arthur McKane. Mrs. Leslie Young, Mrs. Jack McDonald and Mrs. Owens MacDonald took part in the panel.

The roll call was "Something I would like to have on next year's program." The motto "If you want to be happy, begin where you are," was well taken by Mrs. Lloyd Crichton. Mrs. C. G. Bishop gave a humorous reading about Grandmother making a career.

Members decided to choose "Hospitality foods" as the short course offered by the W.I. branch of the Department of Agriculture next year. They also decided to cater to a banquet for the Peel Medical Co-operative Services next Monday evening in Snelgrove Hall. Mrs. Owens MacDonald, Mrs. Donald Clarke and Mrs. Hugh Clarke head the banquet committee.

Mrs. George Frazer and Mrs. Art McKane were chosen as delegates to the District Annual to be held on May 17th at Cheltenham.

Mrs. Jack McDonald was presented with a gift for opening her home to the short course held in April. It was "Choosing and using fabrics," given by Mrs. Kidd from the Dept. of Agriculture.

Mrs. Donald Clarke, the scout for the meeting, gave a vote of thanks to all who had taken part in the evening's program. It was the first meeting under the new president, Mrs. Fraser MacDonald. A social hour followed the meeting, with Mrs. Jack McDonald, Mrs. Leslie Young, Mrs. Starrett Leslie and Miss Eleanor Macdonald assisting the hostess with sandwiches, cookies and tea.

SCORES PERFECT HAND AT CRIB

While playing cribbage at his home, Arthur Maybanks scored a perfect crib hand of 29 points. A neighbour, Mr. Ed Harris was enjoying a friendly 2-handed game when Arthur had his good luck.

LIMEHOUSE COMPACT, W.I. PIN FOR MRS. ED SANFORD

Mrs. E. Sanford was presented with a Federated Women's Institute of Ontario pin and a suitably engraved compact at the meeting of the Limehouse Women's Institute on May 5th.

This was the first meeting of the year and was held in Limehouse Memorial Hall with Mrs. H. Smith, the new president, in the chair. The installation of officers was conducted by Mrs. J. Noble; Mrs. H. Smith president; Mrs. E. Sanford, 1st vice; Mrs. J. Roughley, 2nd vice and Mrs. A. J. Smethurst, district director.

Following the ode and the Mary Stewart Collect, the presentation was made to Mrs. Sanford by Mrs. Smith, with Mrs. Smethurst reading an address. After thanking the ladies for their co-operation, Mrs. Sanford presented Mrs. J. W. Noble with a glamour pin, thanking her for her great assistance in the past few years.

Delegates appointed to attend the District Annual at Ashgrove, June 1st were Mrs. J. S. Noble, Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. H. Smith. Reports were given by Mrs. Frank Brown on the bazaar committee, which showed a good profit, Mrs. E. Findley on the Children's Aid meeting at Milton and Mrs. J. W. Noble on the Halton county TB and Health Association meeting which she attended at Trafalgar Hall.

Current events were given by Mrs. Smethurst and Mrs. Sanford the motto, "Every privilege is a responsibility."

Mrs. E. Karn sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. J. Roughley, after which the meeting closed and afternoon tea was served.

Monday, May 23rd is the next public holiday.
