Eleanor Cook Weds Doctor From Pembroke

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Russell Bower, who were married on Saturday in the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, Guelph, will be living in Pembroke where Dr. Bower, a McGill University graduate is starting his own medical practice. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Bower, Port Colborne. His bride, Eleanor Margaret Cook, daughter of Mrs. Thomas H. Cook, of Limehouse and the late Mr. Cook, is a graduate of Guelph General Hospital school for nurses and has been on the staff of Port Colborne General Hospital.

Roses, delphinium, fern and white candleabra decorated the church and Elder E. Kennedy officiated. Mrs. William Green was organist and Mrs. Alex Strangways sang Wedding Prayer during the service.

The bride wore a waltz length gown of nylon lace over taffeta with lily point sleeves and a tulle veil caught to a headress of orange blossoms. She carried red roses and stephanotis.

Miss Enid Fordham, Toronto, was maid of honour wearing waltz length pale blue nylon chropespan, a head-dress of stephanotis and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bride's brother George Cook gave her in marriage. Dr. H. Thurston Bonney, Port Colborne, was the groomsmen and ushers were Fred and Albert LeFeuvre of Toronto.

The reception was held in Guelph YWCA. The bride's mother wore pink embossed printed sheer and a corsage of white rosebuds and delphinium. The groom's mother wore pink crepe and a corsage of white roses.

For a wedding trip to the Laurentians, the bride wore a light blue linen suit, white accessories and a corsage of deep pink roses.

WMS Presentation to Wife of Minister

The WMS held their Associate Helpers meeting Monday night in the church. After a short business meeting Mrs. F. Shortill took charge of the program. Mrs. Warne read the scripture lesson from Romans 10:8-13 telling of Paul's ministry and his special message to the Roman people. A reading was given by Mrs. J. Snow telling of Dr. Crosbie's missionary work on the Pacific Coast and of Dr. Darby, superintendent of WMS hospitals in British Columbia. Shirley Kirkwood and Bonny Cotton sang two duets "Beside the Still Waters" and "The Church in the Wildwood" which were much appreciated. Mrs. Starret read an article on stewardship and Miss Hillis told of missionary work carried on in Angola. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Russ was presented with a cup and saucer and matching bowl with the best wishes of all. Mrs. F. Smith presented Mrs. Russ with another cup and saucer on behalf of the Women's Association and wished them every blessing in their new home. A dainty lunch was served to close the meeting and all enjoyed a social time together.

The Young People met Sunday evening at the home of Ros Shortill. Beth McEnery led in the worship service and Duncan Gibson gave the topic on "Why Missions." Plans were discussed on having a picnic later in July.

Brock Robinson is enjoying two weeks' vacation at camp near Honey Harbour.

Miss Pauline Wheeler of Acton spent the week-end with Elizabeth Gibson.

There was a good attendance at the Blue Mountain school picnic Wednesday afternoon. The pupils enjoyed a ball game with Mr. Art Roye as umpire. Races also were hotly contested. Mr. Russ was present and gave out the certificates and report cards. Everyone then enjoyed a bountiful supper to close an enjoyable afternoon. Grade 7 and 8 presented Mrs. R. Shortill with a gift of earrings and pin. We wish to congratulate Bonny Cotton, Shirley Kirkwood, Marie Mitchell and Richard Smith on passing entrance exams successfully.

The evening auxiliary held a very enjoyable afternoon tea and program Thursday. Guests were present from Ospringe, Erin, Georgetown, Ashgrove and Mcville. Mrs. Ringler was guest speaker, who, with her husband had taught school in Ethiopia for three years. Mrs. Ringler had on display many articles made and used by the people of that country and proved to be quite interesting and educational. A bountiful salad supper was served in the basement.

Present Silver Awards At School Graduation

Carolyn Biehn and Barbara Kinrade won the H. Silver Memorial awards by topping their Grade 8 classes this year in Georgetown.

They received cheques from Sid Silver who established the awards in memory of his father, a prominent Georgetown merchant, at graduation ceremonies Wednesday at the two schools.

Mayor Jack Armstrong acted for Mr. Silver, who was unable to be present that day, in presenting the prizes. In his talk to the students, the mayor expressed gratitude to Mr. Silver for his interest in education and said it had been a definite stimulus to all students to do their best in school. He stressed summer safety, asking boys and girls to take care of themselves and come back to school in good health in the fall.

At the Chapel Street graduation in the morning, Principal Harold Hignry officiated. Prizes were presented to Carolyn Biehn, to June Lyon who ranked second, and to David Smith and Bill Montgomery who shared the award for making the most progress during the school year.

The whole school assembled at Wrigglesworth in the afternoon, when Principal William Kinrade was chairman and Mayor Armstrong was present there too to present prizes. These were given to Barbara Kinrade, Margaret Eason, in second place and Jacqueline Toat, most progress. It was the first Grade 8 class to graduate from the new school.

Completes First Year Maths Course at Varsity

Harry Farrar, whose parents operate Terra Cotta Inn, received second class honours at the University of Toronto where he completed his first year in the mathematics and physics course this year.

He is working this summer as a bus boy at Hanf Springs Hotel.

His brother Edward, who followed him in graduating from Brampton High School this year, has enrolled in the same course at university next fall.

URGES POLICE CURB SPEEDING DRIVERS

Georgetown, Ontario, 34 River Drive, June 30th, 1955.

Editor, The Herald:
Dear Sir:

PASSING OF THE OPP
By the time this will have gone to press, our town will have had a few days experience in the reversion to a town police force replacing that of the Provincial Police.

It is supposed that opinion would be divided as to the merits and demerits of the two different forces. We do not forget that previous to the taking over of police duties by the Provincials, Georgetown boasted of a town force that was very efficient and at the same time kindly in the enforcement of the law. Every effort was made to rehabilitate the individual who may have been amiss rather than to merely enforce the law. This is as it should be and we should feel that the officers entrusted with our safety and well-being are our personal friends. Sometimes it is difficult to persuade a person that this is a fact, but it is a common-sense attitude.

Our own experience with the Provincials was that they were men of integrity and high purpose and we are glad to pay tribute to their work.

There is one feature of enforcement that should receive prior consideration and it is long overdue if the safety and well-being of the residents is to be considered. This has to do with the speeding that is done in several sections of the town. Some of the streets have become practical raceways and some method must be found to curb this dangerous practice. We are not referring to the occasional motorist who may inadvertently exceed the limit by a few miles an hour, but rather the type of motorist or truck driver who is absolutely callous in his disregard of the value of human life. Such a driver, when under the influence of liquor, is nothing less than a potential murderer.

The increasing incidence of the latter type is giving rise to much concern and before long the governments at both levels will have to do something drastic to remedy the situation. It is to be hoped that our splendid town will lead the way in regards to enforcement which will safeguard the interests of one and all before any more fatalities occur.

Sincerely Yours,
Ed Peters.
