Wears Nottingham Lace
 At Wedding in Norval

A touch of her English homeland was added to the marriage of Maurice Eunice Sharran Needham on June 25th with the lace on her wedding gown coming from Nottingham. Miss Needham became the bride of William James News, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Absolom News in St. Paul's Church of England, Norval, with Rev. James Maxwell officiating. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Needham, Marwood Farm, E. R. 4, Georgetown and was employed at Smith and Stone before her marriage. The groom has been employed at Miradon Farm.

White and mauve chrysanthemums, white snapdragon and mauve stock decorated the church for the four o'clock ceremony. Ruth Wilson played the wedding music and Johnny Burton sang the 23rd Psalm before the bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.

She was gowned in white tulle under white lace, with a blue understrip. A white lace jacket was worn over a strapless top and her veil was white tulle with a headband of sequins in hearts.

Mrs. Dennis Brown, the bride's sister, as matron of honour, wore a gown of tan net over eggshell taffeta with a bolero and strapless top. She carried pink and yellow carnations in the form of a wishbone. Bridesmaid Miss Margaret Lewis wore green net over eggshell taffeta and carried a similar bouquet. Little Sharan News, the groom's niece, was flower girl wearing an ankle length gown of blue net over taffeta and also with a similar bouquet.

Joe Schertel was groomsman and ushers wear Norman News and E. Barnstable.

A reception followed in Georgetown Odd Fellows Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Needham received, Mrs. Needham wearing blue lace with pink hat and accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. R. News received for his brother, Mrs. News dressed in pale blue, white accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

During the reception hymn and prayer books were presented to the bride and groom from the members of St. Paul's Church. They left on a honeymoon trip to Manitowlin Island, the bride wearing a pale blue suit and hat, tan accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and blue delphiniums. They will be making their home in Leduc, Alberta.

Well, the governing body of CM has taken another change. It seems that the older members of the exec. decided it was time to break in a few new recruits, so a hurried election was held last Friday night with these results: Three new male members namely: Bob Tracey, Grant Emmerson and Ken Langdon, Carol Seddon was the only new member from the fair sex. (Fair, meaning "half way between good and bad.") Jean Engleby and Bev Cunningham were returned to office by popular acclaim. Exactly what happened to Judy and Donna, we can't say, but we don't think they will stray too far from the committee.

At this point we would like to congratulate the retiring executive members on the fine job they have done in building CM to its present high standard and to wish the coming committee the best of luck in carrying on the task.

False rumours regarding the existence or non-existence of dance last Friday night caused a drop in attendance, but we expect to see all the absentees back this week. Incidentally, this will be a "come as you like" dance, so that you can beat the heat in your own way. Anyone brave enough to wear shorts will be admitted for half price.

We also have a matter to clear up here, regarding the hayride, Counselor Ken Gregory informed us Friday night that the drivers were reimbursed for their service, but not on the night of the ride, due to some financial bungling. Ken is very persuasive when it comes to proving CM's generosity. (Our broken arm is healing nicely, thank you.)

That's all for the present, from this corner. Just remember, we want to see a big crowd there this week to give the new exec a good start. Let's all help this time.

by Donna Bennett

Repeating the first line of last week's column, we open with "we goofed." I mean none of the committee made an appearance at the scheduled meeting on June 28th at the usual time and place. I am still uncertain why this happened but we must expect these things, I suppose.

My small part in this CM column is being written in the defence of the committee and their attempts to satisfy the young people of teen town. This is only my opinion but I believe that last week the teen town executive was brought forth as a bunch of tight-wads. Perhaps the boys did not receive any money for the use of their tractors and wagons on June 24th, but it was definitely planned that they would be paid and in time they will be. Another money problem mentioned was the price. I agree that a dollar a couple was somewhat high but even then we wouldn't make any profit on the evening. We aren't really cheap.

With all our problems big or small I am sure everyone enjoyed themselves. Maybe next time we will have a program planned in which we will try to please everyone — if possible — and I don't believe it is.

Au Revoir.
